ANOTHER WORLD

THE EDGE OF NIGHT

*The rest of our days
depends on the rest
of our nights.*

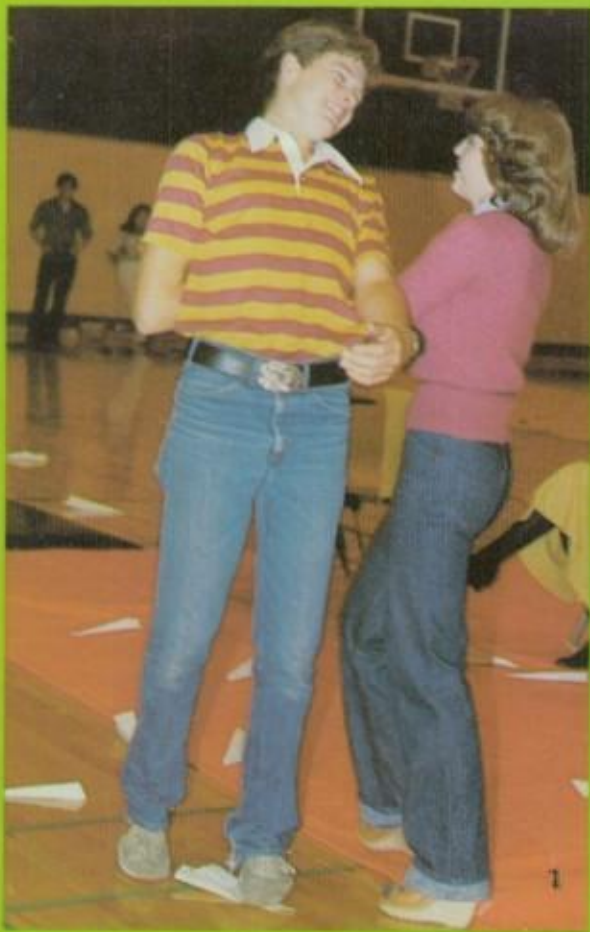

Any number of things can happen at the edge of night at San Luis High. Down on Holt Field there may have been a Varsity or Soph/Frosh football game or the Junior and Senior Powderpuff teams having it out. Up by the Old Gym a victory dance could have occurred, or a Movie Night, or a live band may have rocked out. In Theatre 33 a play and not too far away, a Yearbook staff working late. The sun of activities sets late at San Luis High, past the edge of night.

AS YOUR

STOMACH CHURNS

1. INSIDE A KID'S HEAD-Jane and Joe Sophomore dance in their daydreams before class starts.
2. HOW WAS IT? -Elena Enos questions Joe Sophomore about his first date.
3. WHAT CAN I SAY? -Johnny Jockstrap can't keep the girls off him.
4. I HEARD THAT! -Susie Soc. retorts to comment made by the Stud Row crowd while friend Gwendoline Gossip stands by.
5. WHO, ME? -Susie Soc., with classmate sexy girl in background, answers a question in class.

"We needed to get people's attention," said Assembly Commissioner Chadley Christenson about maintaining student interest in our many gatherings this year. So Chadley came up with "As Your Stomach Churns," an outrageous pseudo-soap opera with members of the ASB Cabinet playing assorted campus stereotypes, intended to amuse and inform the student body of games, dances and other activities.

The Cabinet members played their parts with spirit and enthusiasm, if not expertise, creating such characters as Bobby Bitchin', a senior permanently disillusioned with the taste of light beer and Joe Sophomore, a professional nurd.

Intentionally or not, "As Your Stomach Churns" gave us a chance to laugh at ourselves for the characters were not so different from us.

RYAN'S HOPE

It looks like Al Berita has a very rhythmic future ahead of him.

Shelley Cooper looks into the future for a career in Fashion Merchandising.

Ila Lorz enjoys working with children and hopes to have her own preschool.

John Thomas seems to be headed for a career in the field of Liberal Arts.

Sinclair Miles was one of the top athletes of the 1980 Football season.

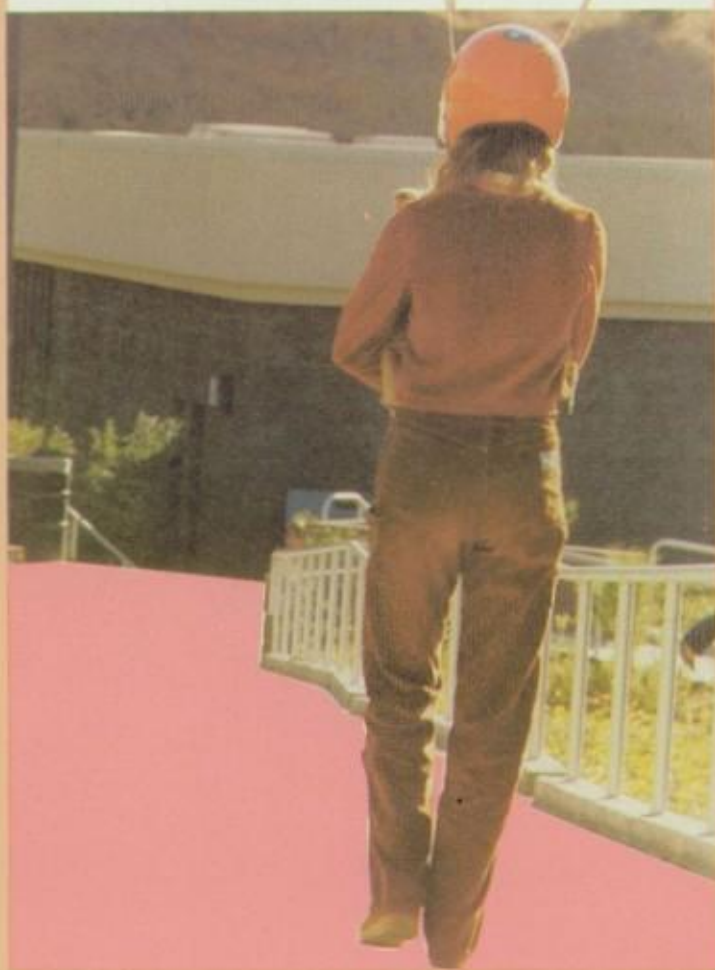

Nancy Crane is pursuing an acting career and hopes to attend Drama School in England.

If America's hope lies in the hands of its youth then we in this country are in wonderful shape. You need only observe the personal charm and scholastic ability of members of our student body to realize that we have nothing to worry about. In fact, we can look to the future with the certain knowledge that in the capable hands of today's superior students, only good can result. They have shown leadership, integrity, and hope. With these qualities, they will lead us into the building of a beautiful tomorrow.

FLAMINGO ROAD

A "Flamingo Road" commonly used at San Luis High by most students, usually called "Stud Row," joins the main building academic departments together. This is the pathway which girls tend to avoid and guys hope to be a part.

In years past, students at San Luis High had only one or two roads to take on their way to classes. This 1980-81 year has provided many more paths to walk due to SLOSH's major facelift. We still had to lug backpacks crammed with books from here to there, but at least there was a little variety. Ramps, railings, and stairways zig zag across our new campus and inside the main building, Stud Row remains as traditional as ever.

FACES IN THE STANDS

As the school year of 1980-81 comes to a close, so do the events that made it special. But in these pages, they are preserved for all time.

This was a good year for many reasons, but it will always stand out as an incredible year for sports. Football, tennis, wrestling, basketball, swimming, baseball, golf—all these teams and more did spectacularly, some for the first time in years.

We on the Staff are sorry we could not cover sports to the extent they should have been. Bad weather, poorly timed deadlines assigned by the publishing company, and a lack of photographers prevented us from doing all we wanted. Still, we tried our best and covered those teams who did so well. Congratulations champions of 1980-81.

TIGERS OVERTHROW NORTHERN LEAGUE

Tim Henderson gets an up close and personal look at first base.

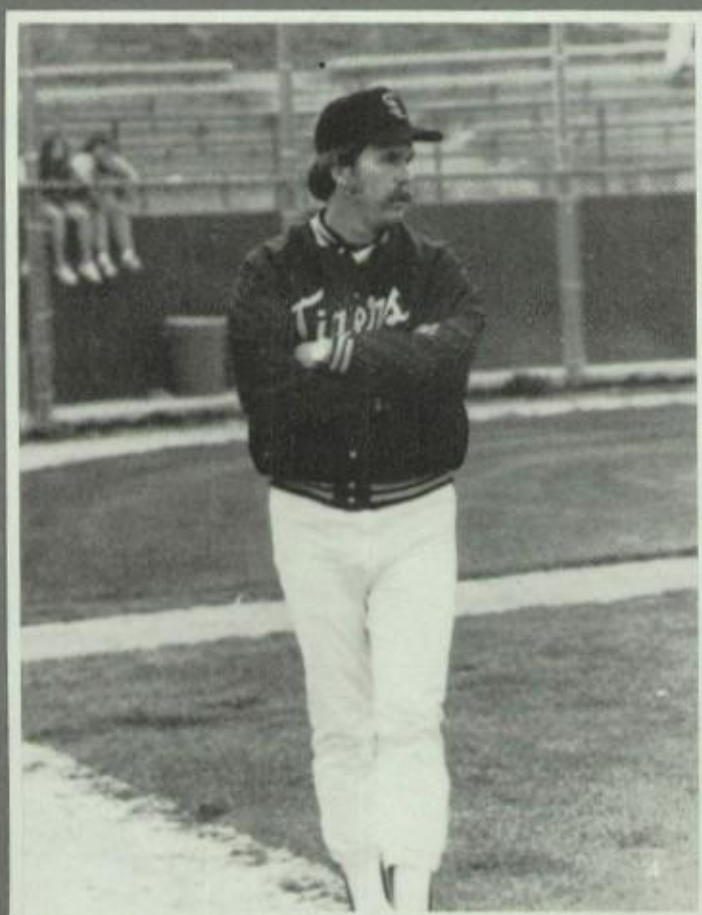

Derek Rector in a thoughtful moment before a game.

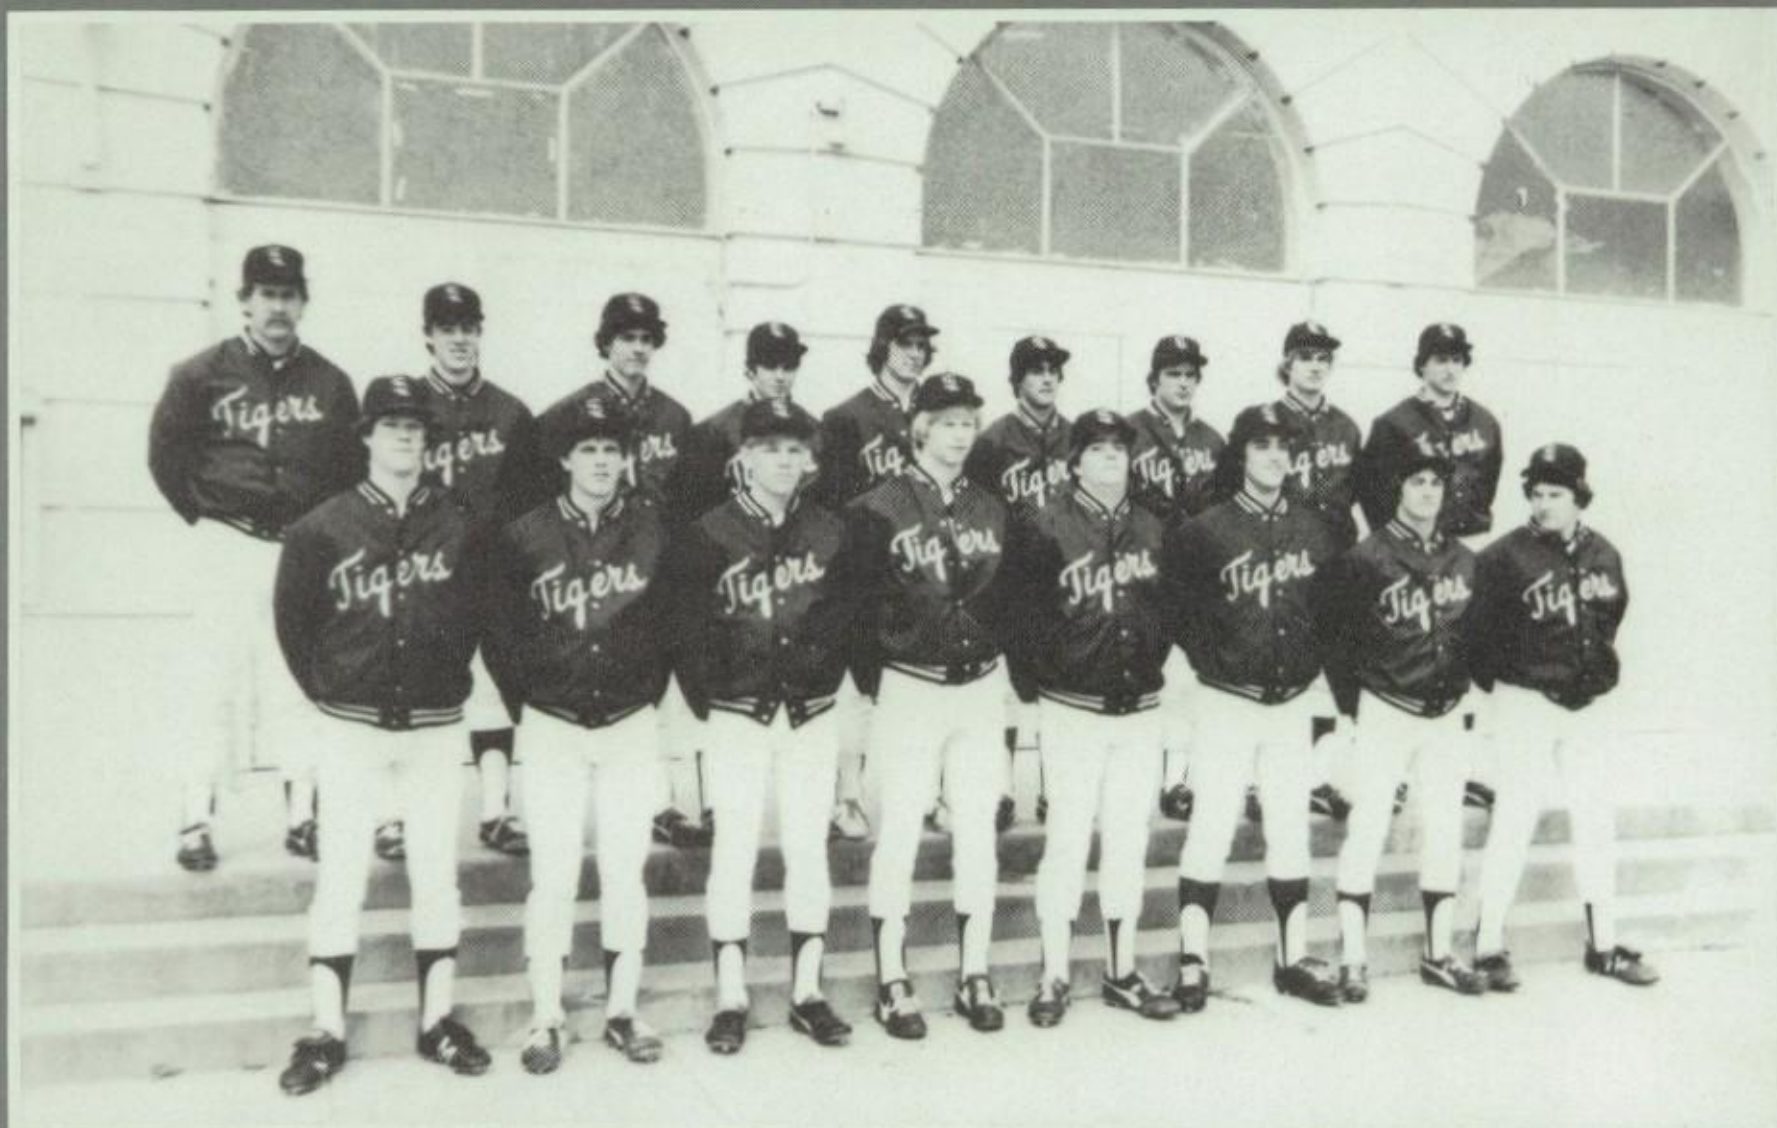

Steve Snyder, one of the Tigers outstanding players.

Taking the Coaching position for the Varsity Baseball Team, Randy Spoeneman led the Tigers to an outstanding season. Rising from fourth to first in league, the Tigers showed great team effort and skill. By their sixth league game, the Tigers stood 5-1 holding the first place title. Up against Righetti, San Luis scored five, letting the Warriors gain only two. David Baur's three run home run was indeed a great contribution to the game. Sam Silacci, Catcher; Steve Snyder; Pitcher David Baur and Tim Henderson were a few of the many standouts of the team.

1. Sam Silacci waits for the pitch to come in.
2. Earl Schlikeiser readies himself.
3. Matt Taylor takes a lead off first base.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

For the first time in three years the Girls Basketball Team did not reach the C.I.F. Playoffs. A loss to Lompoc in the next to the last game of the season placed S.L.O. in a tie for third place in the Northern League. But Lompoc received the playoff birth since S.L.O. had played in the playoffs in 1979-80 while Lompoc had not.

Among the seniors, Ella Batson led the team in rebounds while Vicki Opstad and Kerrie Lambert had the highest shooting percentages. LaRea Wheeler was the outstanding offensive player and Diana Rogers the outstanding defensive player. Shelly Heeren, team captain, provided team leadership. Players who will return next year are Ellette Deeds, Nancy Mote, Deneen Patti, Jenny Sullivan, and Missy West.

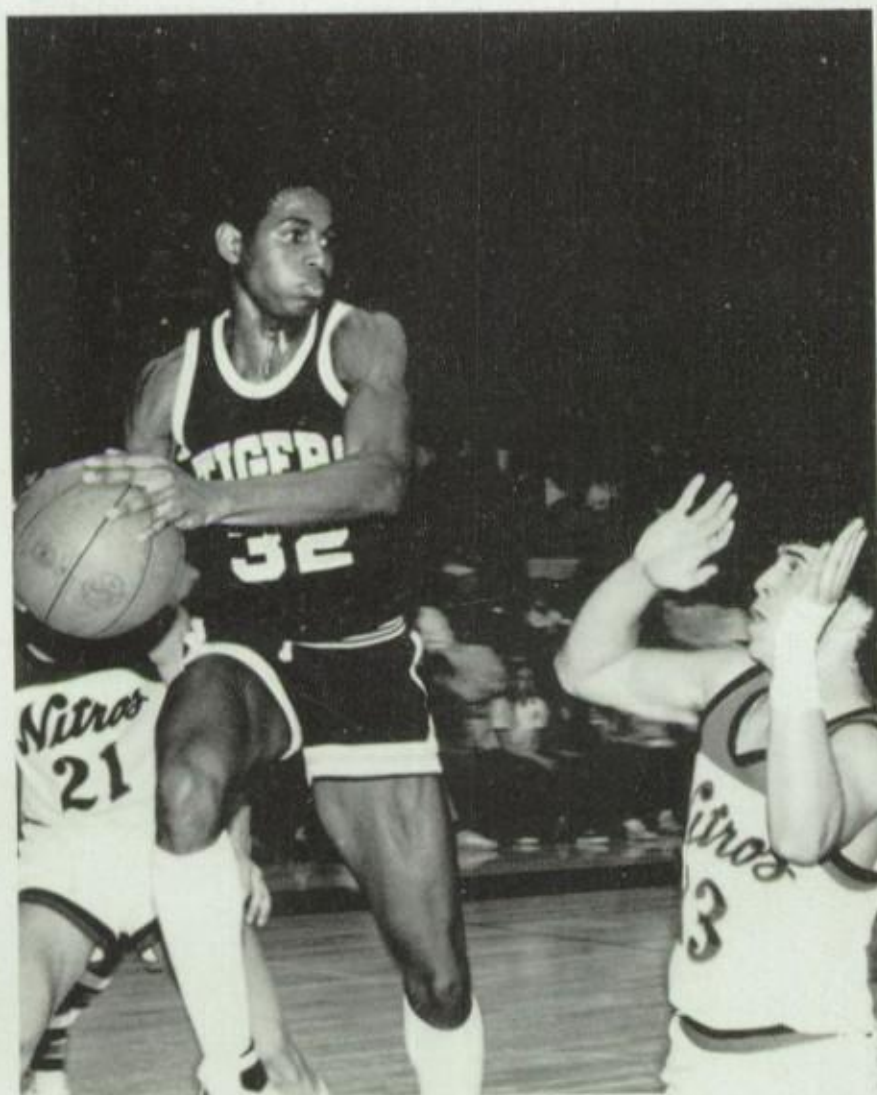

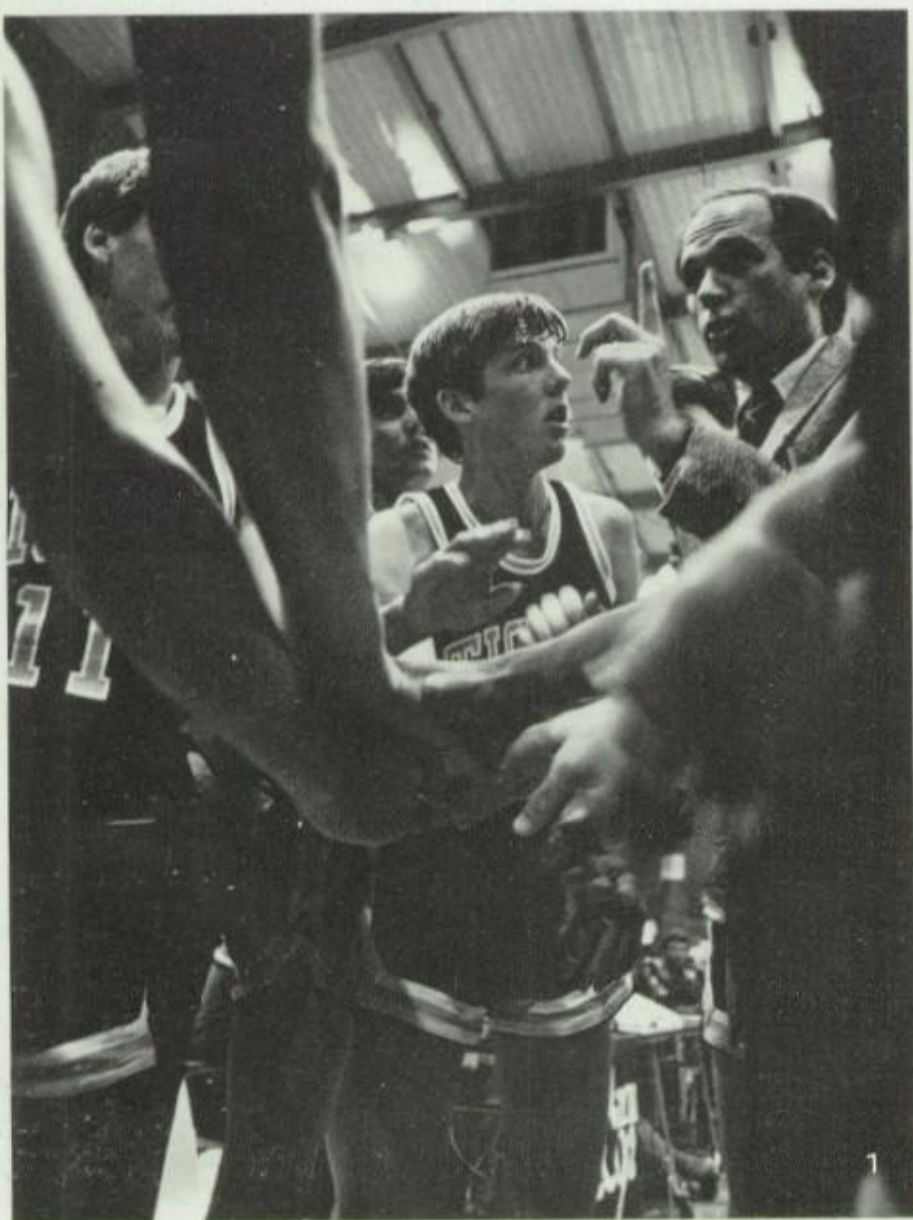

1. Hold your head up - the Tigers reach for the ball.
2. Too late, #53! Tiger Ellette Deeds evades her opponent.
3. Over here! Jenny Sullivan struggles to stay open in the thick of things.
4. Up and out! Deneen Patti reaches past Brenda Maynard of Santa Maria.
5. Extension! Shelly Heeren pushes hard against opposition.

Led by Coach Vegher, the Tigers placed second in League with a record of 7-3. Up against Saugus in the first round of CIF, the Tigers, using their outstanding defense, took the win. Although the Tigers were tough in the second game they took the loss to Glendale.

Coach Vegher, very pleased with the season stated "The team played very well together." Team effort and having the best defense in the league is what made them winners.

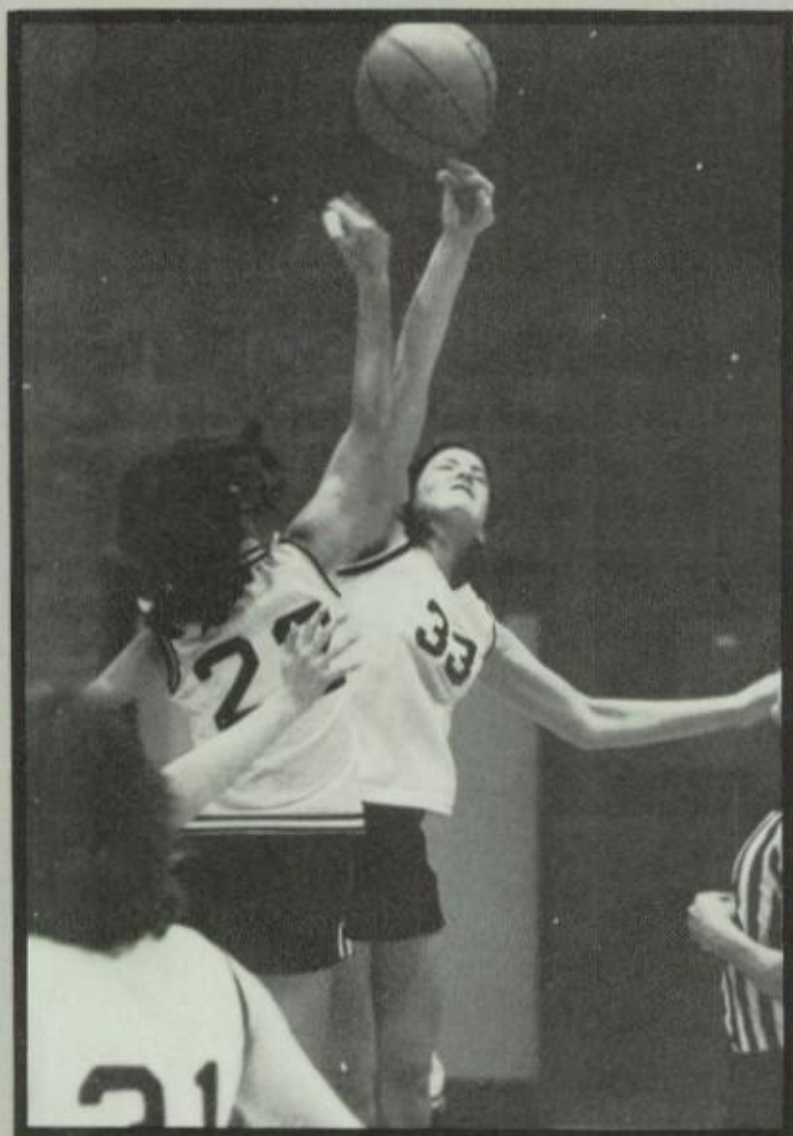

Mike Copeland, captain of the team said, "Nobody expected us to win," as they were rated fifth in league.

Jim Vegher was chosen Coach of the Year for the League of 1981. Two players were chosen from Vegher's team to play on the All-League Basketball Team: Center Tim Dignan and Forward Bing Farmer.

Congratulations Tigers for a fantastic season!

1. Players listen intensely as Coach Vegher gives time out instructions.
2. Eric Hansen drives down court.
3. Gregg Armstrong takes it to the hoop.
4. Opponent begs for mercy, as Greg Dancy gets tough.
5. Tiger fans stand in suspense as Bing Farmer takes action.
6. Mike Copeland hangs ten.
7. Tim Dignan regains control of the ball.

The Cross Country team was small this year, but that didn't stop them from placing second in the league after being tied for first right up until the last meet. "It was a fairly young team," Coach Jim Smith said, "and we've got a lot of people coming back."

Rich Brown and Mike Benton did outstandingly at League Finals, placing second and fourth respectively, and Kath Brennan placed seventh in the Girls' Division.

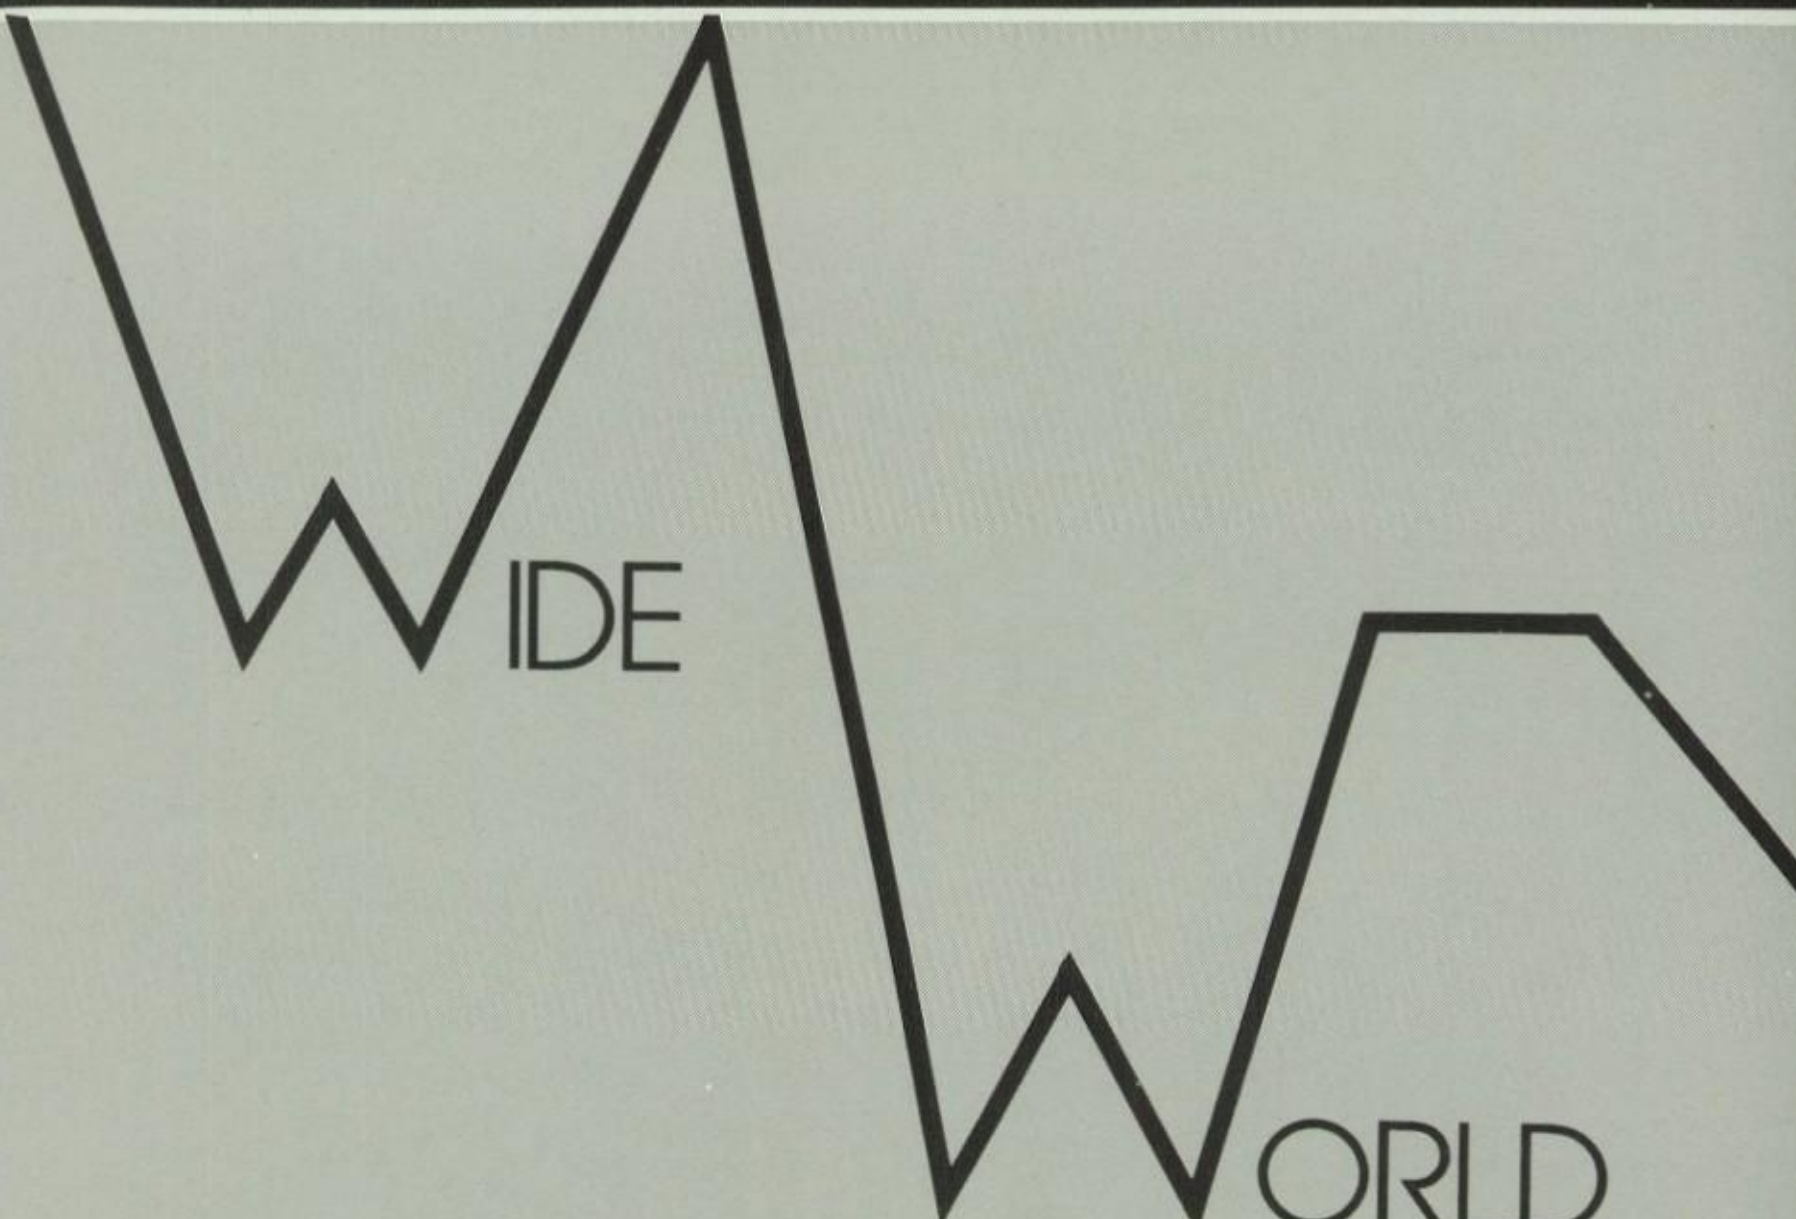

Rich Brown also broke the record time for running the school course 16.16 set by Mike Benton last year. Brown's new time was 15.39.

THE LONGEST YARD

"After an inauspicious beginning with St. Joseph, our players became determined to improve from week to week. This determination created a climate for improvement that carried us through the season and onto CIF." Thus Head Coach Leon Criner described the Varsity Tiger Football Team's performance this season.

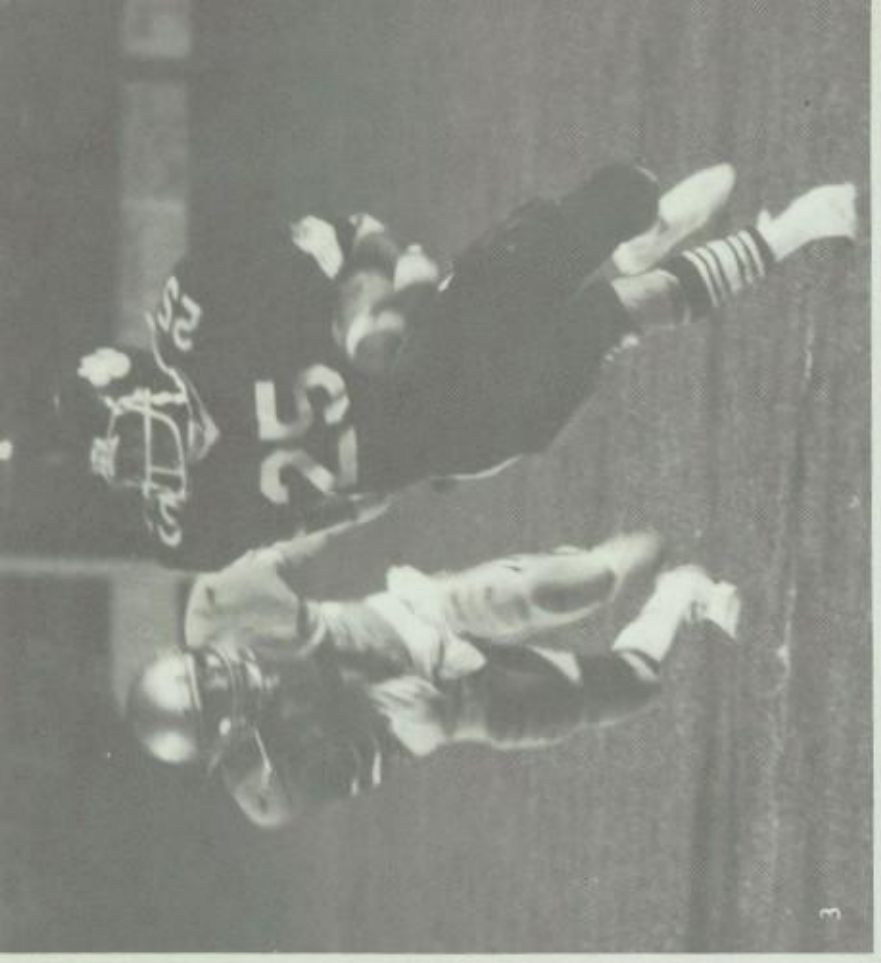

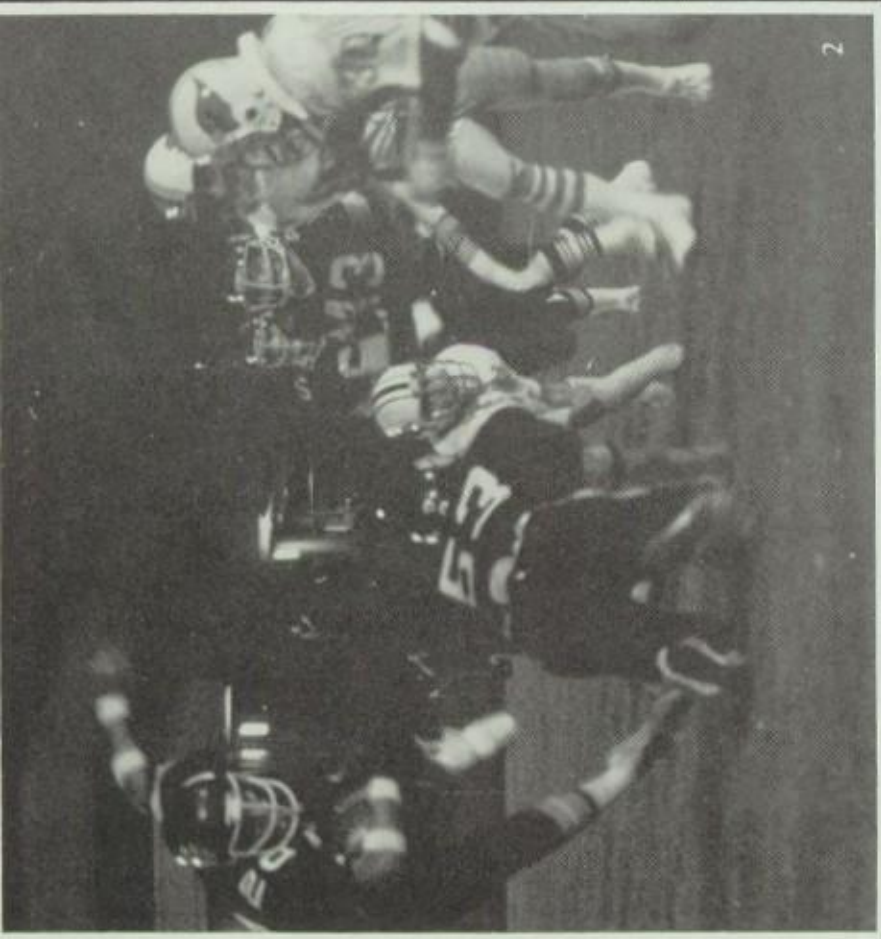

For the Tigers, this year had everything, from bitter defeat at the hands of Lompoc and Arroyo Grande to their ultimate triumph as the Northwestern Conference CIF Champions. The way to that triumph was not easy, but the Tigers were determined to rise to the top, and rise they did.

Team flexibility was demonstrated when Sinclair Miles, stopped by ankle and shoulder injuries, was relieved by fellow running back, Robert Haworth. Haworth was the star of the CIF semifinal game vs. Burroughs, scoring both the Tigers' touchdown. Defensive Tackle Sean Brennan also helped to that victory, batting down Burroughs' two-point conversion pass attempt and preserving SLO's win.

But at no point in the season was team performance higher than during the Championship game. The Tigers had worked hard for the chance to play Lompoc again, ever since the Braves had defeated them in the Tiger's Homecoming game, due to a rare penalty called in Lompoc's favor. Filled with the desire to win and the will to do so, the Tigers swept the Braves aside 7-0 and took the Northwestern Conference Championship as their own.

In honor of their victory, and the victory of the Cal Poly Mustangs, Mayor Lynn Cooper declared a day for football and honored both teams in Mission Plaza. When asked to name outstanding players, Coach Criner replied, "That's hard. Because we made it to CIF, we really have no outstanding individuals. Rather, we have an outstanding team."

CIF SEMI-FINALS

Under the new coaching of Nancy Lara the Tiger Netters formed an awesome combination which allowed them to breeze through the Northern League with a perfect 16-0 record. Using great strokes and team effort they went into the CIF playoffs and after receiving a Bye in the first round they pounded William S. Hart 14-4 and Agoura 14-4. With a shot at the CIF Championship they were in the semi-finals but lost a heartbreaker to Calabasas 10-8. The match was not decided until the last three sets. This match was also known as the "final match."

But the Tigers were still not finished. Jennifer Stechman placed second in the Northern League Singles Championship which enabled her to represent the Northern League in the Individual CIF Playoffs. The Tigers also swept the Northern League Doubles Championship and placed two doubles team of Pam Smith-Mimi Collie and Stacey King-Laurie Stechman. Congratulations to the Tiger Tennis Team for an outstanding season!

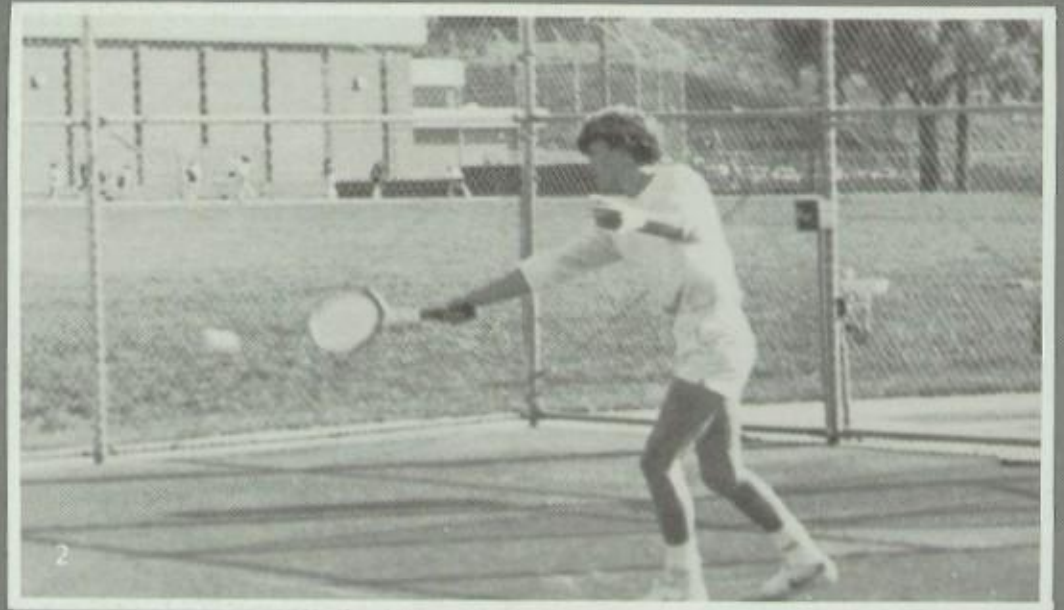

1. Pam Smith packs a lot of power behind her forehand drive.
2. "Hmmm, I think I'll serve to her backhand and then ..." thinks Jennifer Collie about her next match.
3. Stacey King bends her knees low for a volley.
4. Laurie Stechman gets set to hit one of her famous "down the line" passing shots.
5. Jennifer Stechman volleys her way to the Northern League Singles Finals.
6. "Hey Nance! How 'bout this for a nutritious snack?" says Jane Boone, Mimi Collie, and Pam Smith.
7. "Voila! How's that for a volley, Coach?" says Anne Rice.
8. Is this the kind of transportation that Jane Boone and Richelle Beiden ride in on their way to tennis matches?

TRACKING A PATH

With stiff flats and shiney new spikes, this year's team hit the track. Sore legs and rickety bones plagued the runners, hurdlers, jumpers and putters. After long hard hours of practice, however, the small but closely knit group finally got to participate in a meet, but rain and lack of team members prevented most opponents from traveling to Holt Field. Only a few of last year's league champions returned to compete. Pulling together, Coach Hamley's girls ran to their utmost ability.

Strongest in the sprints and middle distance races, the girls also had many fresh field competitors and distance runners. Despite bad weather and injuries, the team had an enjoyable season.

A ONE TRACK MIND

The defending league champion Boys' Track Team was led this year by several strong individual performances. After losing sixteen runners to Graduation last year and several key people to injuries, the team did not perform up to par. Coach Bruce Smith stressed the fact that each person had to do his best at every meet. Team leaders were Brad Hollstien in the 880, 440, and mile relay; Steve Holstien in the 440, 330 low hurdles, 440 relay, and mile relay; Rich Brown in the two mile; Mike Dresp in the mile; and Mark Adams in the 100, 220, 440 relay, and mile relay.

The team is looking good for next year, as only four team members will be graduating.

1. Scott Bishop paces the oval.
2. Rich Johnson is over easy.
3. Track professional Rich Brown.
4. Rich Johnson heading for a vault.
5. Brad Hollstien is comfortably leading fellow Tigers.
6. Coach Smith and Sinclair Miles confer.
7. Pit men.
8. Steve Hollstien shows great form.
9. One Giant Leap for John Ford.
10. Fred Temple speeds up for the long jump.

Under the new coaching of Lindon Crow, Tiger Volleyball was ready to play. This Tiger team had lots of talent, dedication and many hours of practice. "Improvement" was the word for Volleyball '80.

They showed improvement each time they played. They will be losing many outstanding seniors but the rest will be returning along with strong players from J.V. that are moving up.

"We're basically a young team, and we learned a lot this season." That's what Varsity Water Polo coach Mike Beale had to say about the performance of the team this year. The Tigers finished fourth out of sixth in the league this year, beating the arch rival Arroyo Grande 8-4 and coming around after losing to Righetti and beating them 19-4. Outstanding Varsity players included Matt Ekegren, Jim O'Neil, Andy McDonald, and Wayne Goodrich.

The Soph/Fresh team improved their league standing from fourth last year to third this year and expect to go even further. Coach Tom Burns said, "This young team did outstandingly and has a lot of potential." Two Soph/Fresh players, Kurt Webb and Barry Drake, made varsity letters. Chris Merriam was most improved player. As Kurt Webb said, "The Soph/Fresh team improved 110% this year."

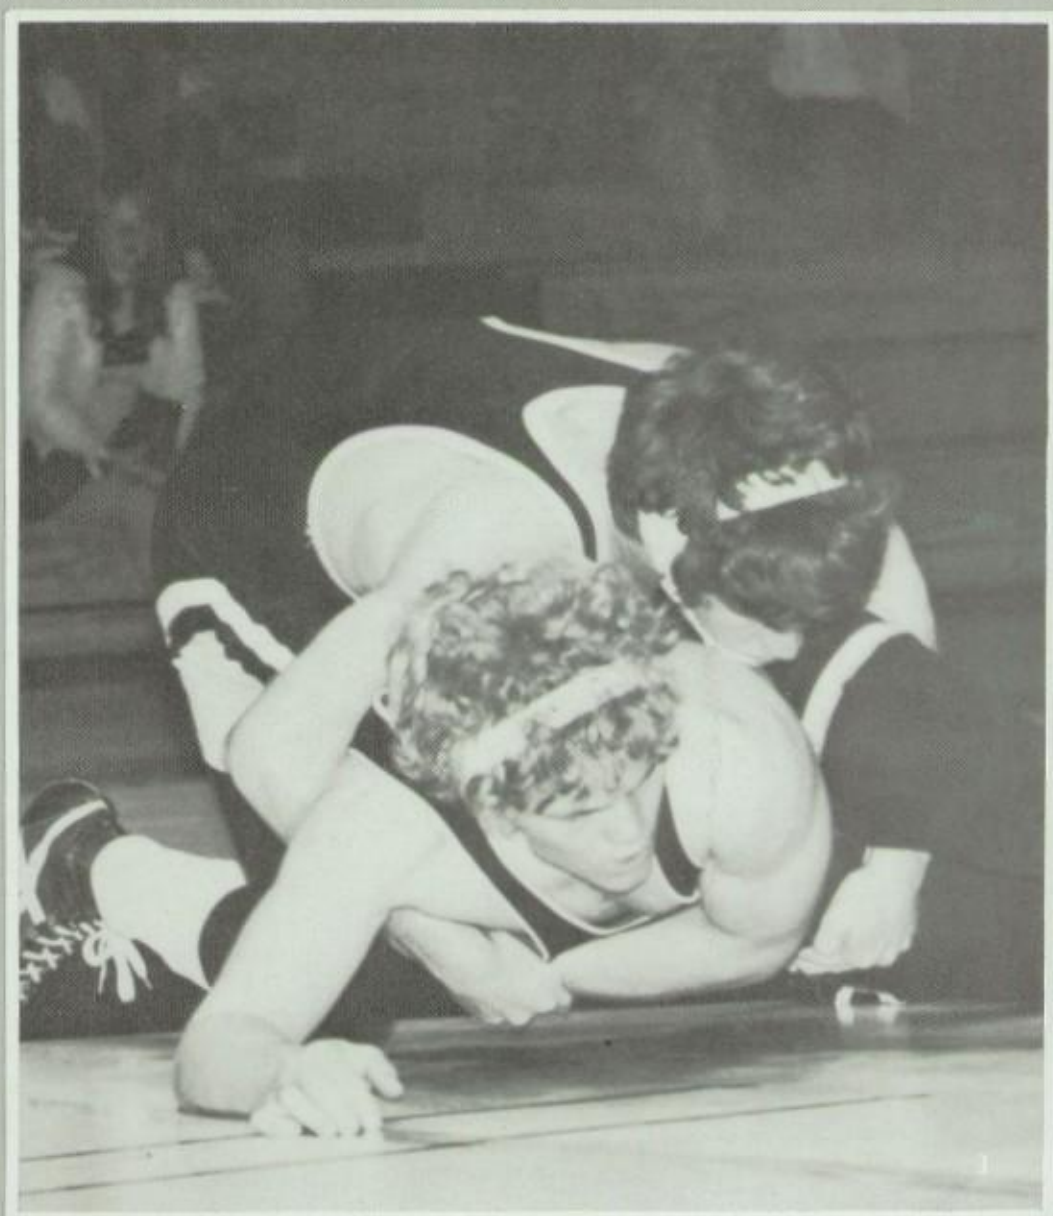

TIGERS

Despite the handicap of no full-time coaches and lack of depth in each weight class, the Tigers finished their league season in fourth place. Injuries plagued the Tigers from the start, forcing the inexperienced on the team to the Varsity positions. The more experienced wrestlers worked hard to pull the weight of the others, but injuries took their toll.

Eight Tigers placed in the Northern League Finals Tournament, thus qualifying them for CIF. These wrestlers were Gene Gay, Eric Jackson, Ken Skinner, Colin Allen, Chris Neumann, Jon Head, Matt McKinstry, and Bob Binkele. Head and Binkele both took first place in this tournament.

"The really great thing about this year's team is that there are only six seniors on it." Boys' Coach Rick Ernstrom means that this will not be the only year the Tigers will have dominated the pool. Due to size and flexibility, the team suffered no losses this year. This gave the boys an advantage over every other team in the league in almost all events. Shaun Moore, George Suchand and Barry Drake contributed much to the J.V. Team. Outstanding Varsity members included Glenn Ringer, Mark Hayek and Greg Strong. Boys' Diving also did well, with Randy King, leading in total points.

An up close look at Girls' Swim Team Captain Jennifer Collie. She is a junior and has been a member of the Tiger Swim Team for two years. Early morning workouts are nothing to Jennifer; she has been swimming competitively since the age of eleven. Last year as a sophomore, she qualified for CIF in three events, placing fifth in the medley relay and tenth in the individual medley in CIF State Finals.

According to Pam Richards, Coach for the Girls, Jennifer has been her most dedicated swimmer for the last two seasons and is the recipient for the Coaches Award for Leadership and Dedication in 1980. Jennifer has never missed an early morning workout or a regularly scheduled afternoon workout. Last year she set a class record for the quarter mile at just under five and a half minutes.

HOMECOMING COURT

The 1980 Homecoming week was full of exciting lunchtime activities, with the Sophomores' "Standing-On-Ice-Box Contest" the Juniors' pumpkin carving contest, and the Seniors' donut eating contest. A delicious barbeque was held at the Vets Building and a thrilling movie night featured "Burnt Offerings." The Junior girls were victorious over the Senior girls in the Powderpuff Football game. But both teams were all wet when an unexpected waterwork spectacular, the Holt Field sprinkler system, made up the halftime show. Friday, the 31st of October was the last and best day of the Homecoming week. During the day, an assembly featured class skits and the Homecoming Parade downtown roused the crowds for the night ahead.

That Halloween night, the Homecoming Football game had the Tigers pitted against arch rival Lompoc. The Gold lost a heartbreaker, but soon took revenge on the Braves in a second game. The rest is history. The Homecoming halftime show, however, with the crowning of the Queen, Elena Enos by Frankenstein's monster, topped off a very successful week.

Above - all right, who forgot the snow?

Right - gee, it happened so fast - are you sure that was Mr. Smith I ran over?

See those black shapes against the snow, moving faster and faster? See how they weave and turn with increasing confidence? See how, when they wipe out, they get up and keep on going? Then you are seeing the San Luis Obispo High Ski Club, a new reestablished club this year.

Led by slosh instructors Mark Lopez and James Smith, the Ski Club organized three or four trips this year to China Peak, determinedly overcoming such obstacles as car breakdowns, stuck tires and the plain fact that snow was in short supply.

Hopefully, the club will re-emerge next year, and members will again have the opportunity to speed breathlessly down the slopes and dig themselves feet-first out of obliging snow banks.

TIGER'S ROAR EDITORS

Andrea Bernard edited the Tiger's Roar newspaper for the first semester of the school year. She did most of the work herself, since she did not have any permanent writers. Andrea did an excellent job covering CIF football and the Homecoming events. She worked hard to keep the student body well informed of the monthly activities.

Julia Scuri was second semester editor of the Tiger's Roar newspaper. Her main project was coverage of this year's elections. We would all like to thank both of our newspaper editors for their hard work and an excellent paper.

The girl was a lark in the skies of France, high over the heads of her soldiers, singing a joyous, crazy song of courage. There she was, outlined against the sun, a target for everybody to shoot at, flying straight and happy into battle. To Frenchmen, she was the soul of France.

"Many moons ago in a far-off place,
Lived a handsome prince with a gloomy
face,
For he did not have a bride.
Oh, he sighed 'Alas:'
And he pined, alas:
But alas: The Prince couldn't find a lass
Who would suit his mother's pride."

"For a princess is a delicate thing,
Delicate and dainty as a dragonfly's wing.
You can recognize a lady by her elegant air,
But a genuine princess is exceedingly rare."

Mr. Lyle Stubson directed a high-spirited, overwhelming marching band this year.

Led by drummajor Albert Betita, the Band was extremely active, cheering musically during sporting events and representing SLOSH in parades with great style.

Each individual with his or her talented craziness made up a Band that has contributed a great deal to this school as one big happy family.

Band-75

JAZZ BAND

"Does The Man Make The Music

... Or Does The Music Make This Man"

In 1975, Lyle Stubson established a separate music ensemble outside of the Marching Band. A classic Jazz Band.

Before the group became a class at SLOSH, members rehearsed during their own time, mostly at night. They have made a name for themselves by performing at Jazz festivals and school concerts and at Cuesta College and Cal Poly.

Many members of the Marching Band become part of the Jazz Band for the simple love of those soothing sounds. And Jazz Band is unique in that each instrument is different; there are never two of the same in the Band.

Stubson, is not only the director of San Luis High's Jazz Band, but plays trumpet in his own Jazz Band.

We would like to say a few things about our stay in San Luis Obispo. We will certainly remember all the fun we had with you. Surfin' was great and there were some wild parties. We loved the sports cars and the Midnight Movies also. The basketball and football games were exciting. (WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS! Good job, Tigers!) The after game dances and music at lunch all made our stay very memorable.

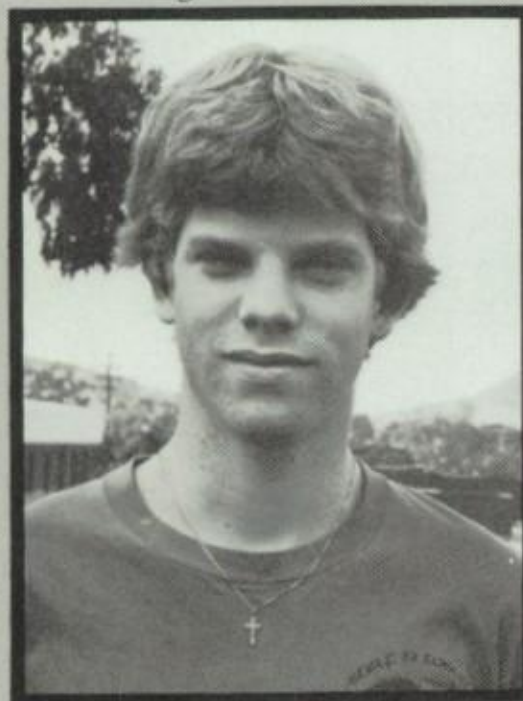

We will miss you all.

This year the International Club advised some very fine students from around the world. Ursula Schilling, Katrin Haffner and Johannes Holtz all have travelled to the United States from Germany. From the same part of the world came Heli Roppola from Finland. Live from New York came Gary Henning for the first semester of the 80-81 school year, while San Luis High's Scout Tremper went to the Big Apple. The second semester of this school year had Michelle McMasters from Pennsylvania and Amy Kerwien from New York. Next year, Joe Hovis will be staying in Stuttgart, Germany.

HOMEMAKERS PLUS A

Future Homemakers of America - Home Economics Related Occupations is a youth organization sponsored by Home Economics departments nationwide.

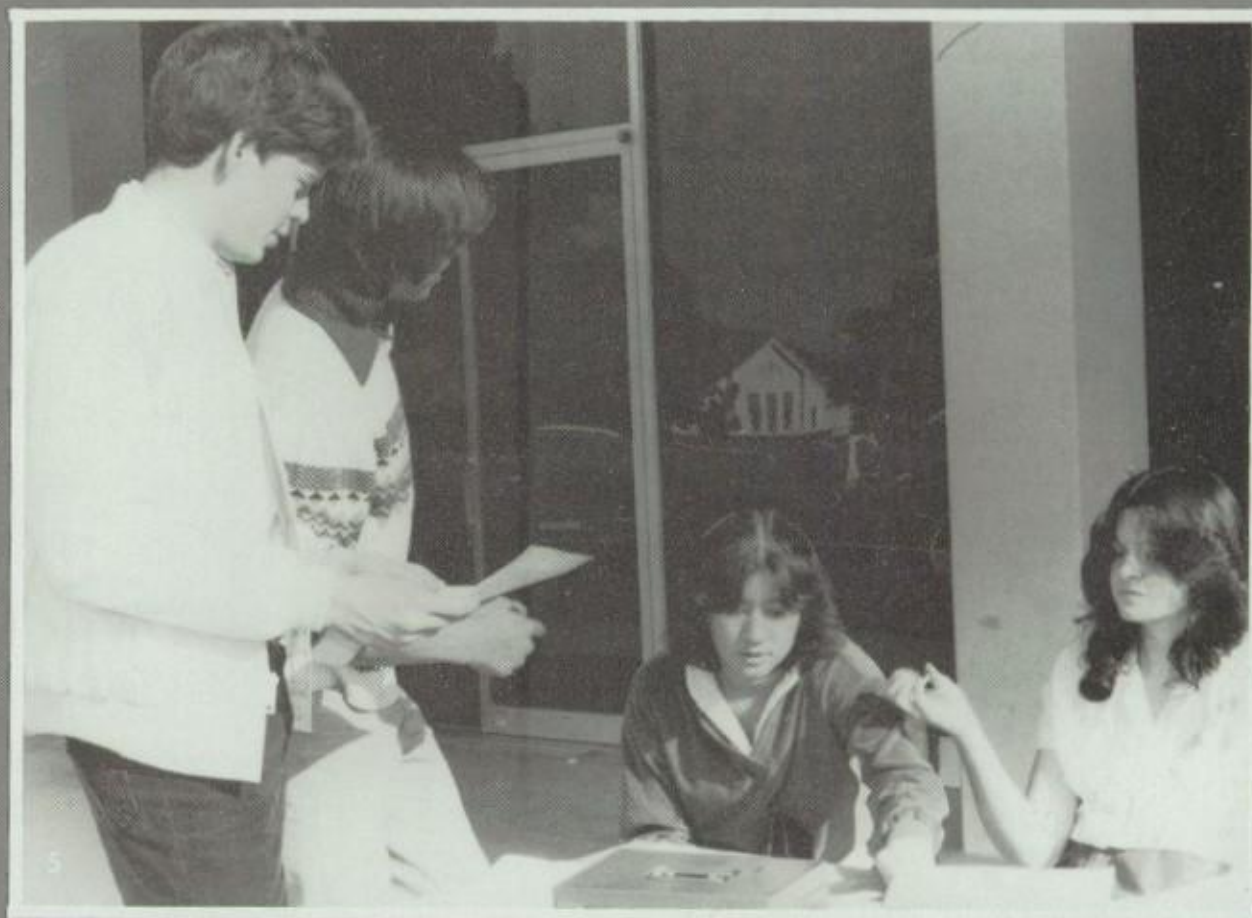

This year FHA-HERO has sold holly grams at Christmas, assisted with the school-wide fashion show in March, and participated in ice and roller skating trips. One of the most exciting events this year was hosting the Sixth Annual Future Homemakers of Japan and FHA-HERO Exchange. Twenty Japanese students attended as well as others from different schools in California.

In Competitive Recognition Events this year, Stacey King placed first in salad preparation at the Subregion level and second in the State Finals. Some other competitive events include: Nutrition Education, Energy Conservation, Community Involvement, Sewing Proficiency, Prepared Speech, Child Care, and Job Application and Interview.

Members: Diana Garza, Lori Misquez, Ann Greenall, Lita Barrios, Debbie Rumore, Kerry Brown, Stacey King, Susan Gries, Karen Lopez - Advisor, Roxy Rowe, Julie Schaefer, Debbie Chamberlin, Karen Gallion.

WHOLE LOT MORE

1. A Japanese student demonstrates the many ways to write. Onlookers include FHA-HERO students, FHJ students, parents and others.
2. Stacey King exchanges gifts with the special foreign visitors.
3. Lori & Julie sell holly grams before Christmas, a traditional fundraiser for the organization.
4. Mrs. Lopez expresses her delight in working with FHA-HERO.
5. FHAers display their "Tiger Spirits" at this year's Homecoming parade.
6. This year's region B officers: Roxy Rowe - Vice-president, Julie Schaefer - President, Debbie Chamberlin - Historian.

The Tiny Tigers pre-school program, an organization funded by the county, is a vocational training program that helps students to achieve entry level job skills in child care. The students involved learn about community job opportunities in child development areas.

Mrs. Richmond set up the program with the establishment of the new buildings. The tots in the program sign up to attend three days a week for two hours a day. The high school students not only plan activities for the youngsters, but also act as director, assistant director and other official positions.

The program will continue next year with Mrs. Waterbury as the advisor.

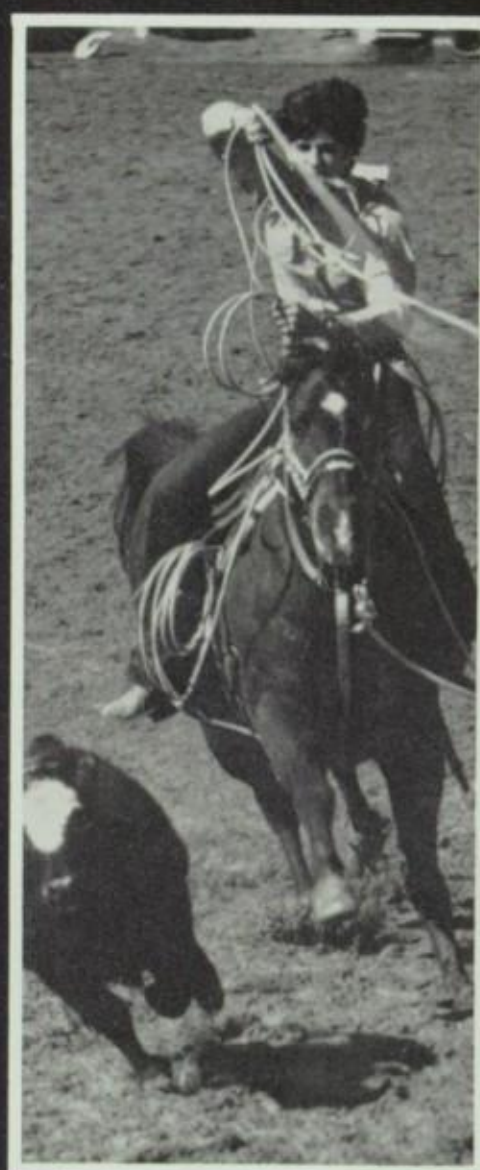

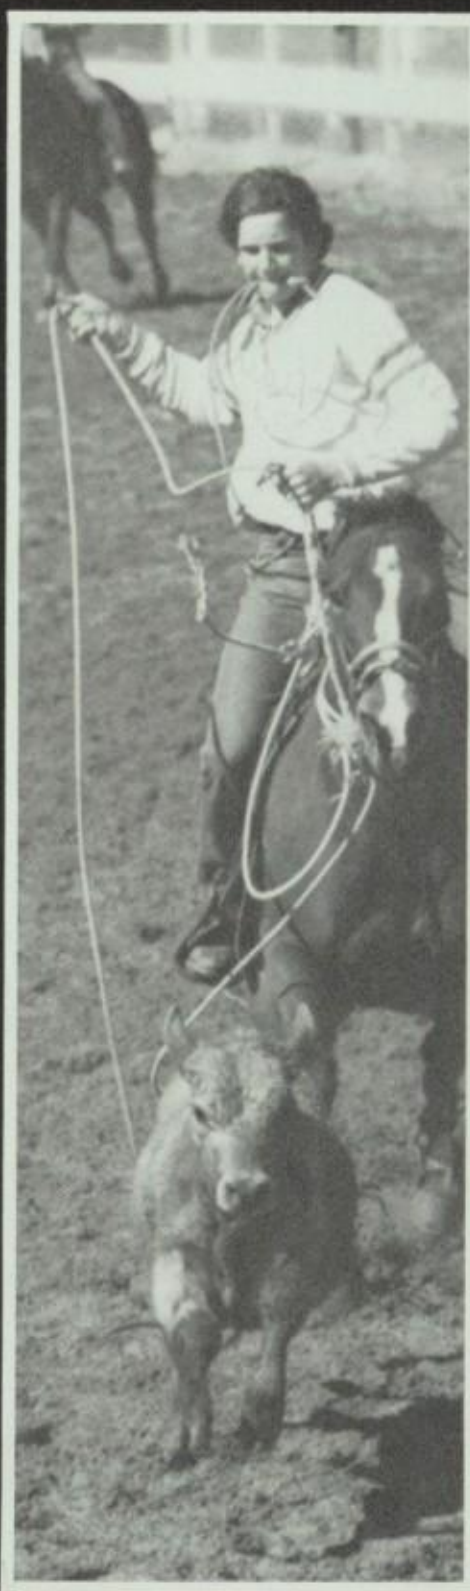

TEXAS

RODEO

San Luis Obispo, Arroyo Grande, Paso Robles. What do all these places have in common? They're all in district 7 of the nine rodeo districts of the state. For those who compete, at least three rodeos must be won before one is able to compete at Junior Cow Palace in San Francisco. That takes work, skill, and dedication. The wide plains and hot, endless deserts may have gotten smaller, and the days of the cattle drives may be over, but the spirit and longing for them lives on.

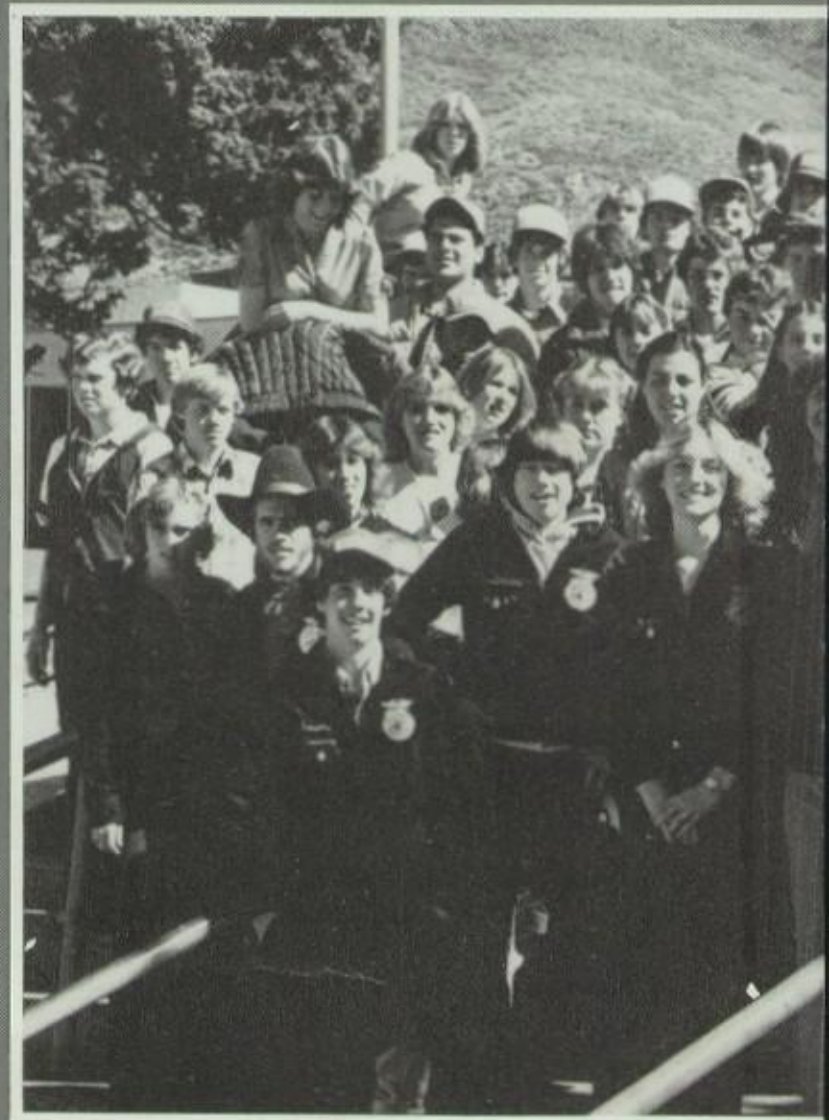

I am a great person

FFA RIDES

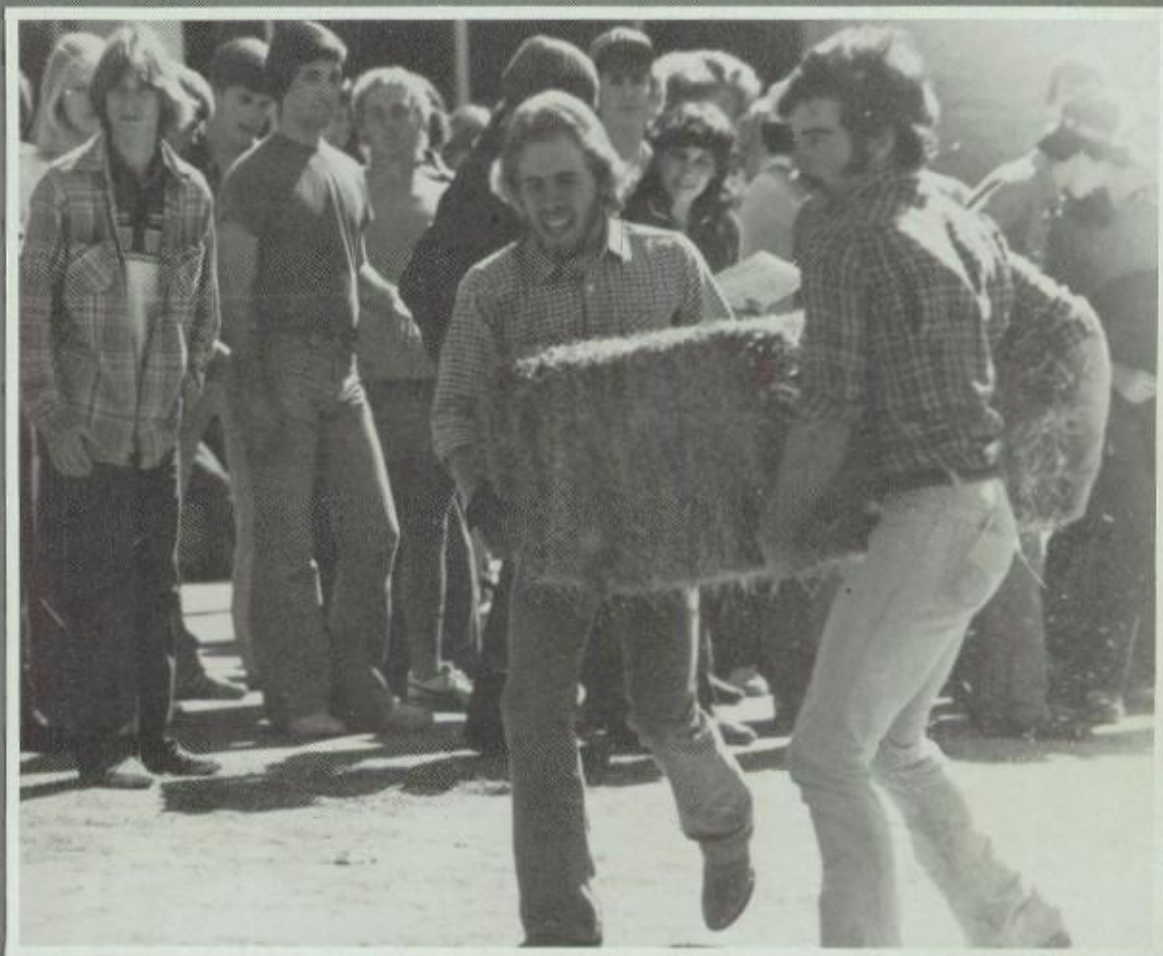

This year was definitely a productive one for the FFA organization. President Randy Newby, overall high school winner in vocational arts, and Vice President Rhonda Farris both went to Washington D.C. and Kansas City to attend the National FFA Convention. National FFA week came and went successfully back here at SLOSH with such events as the petting zoo, haybucking contest, and shishkabob barbeque. All were big hits with the student body.

Another welcome event for FFA members was the final payment on a new livestock trailer. The trailer will allow members to transport animals to judging and similar events on their own. Another step towards self-sufficiency is the expansion and build-up of the school farm. This will provide more experience and opportunity for future projects.

WHO SHOT J.B.?

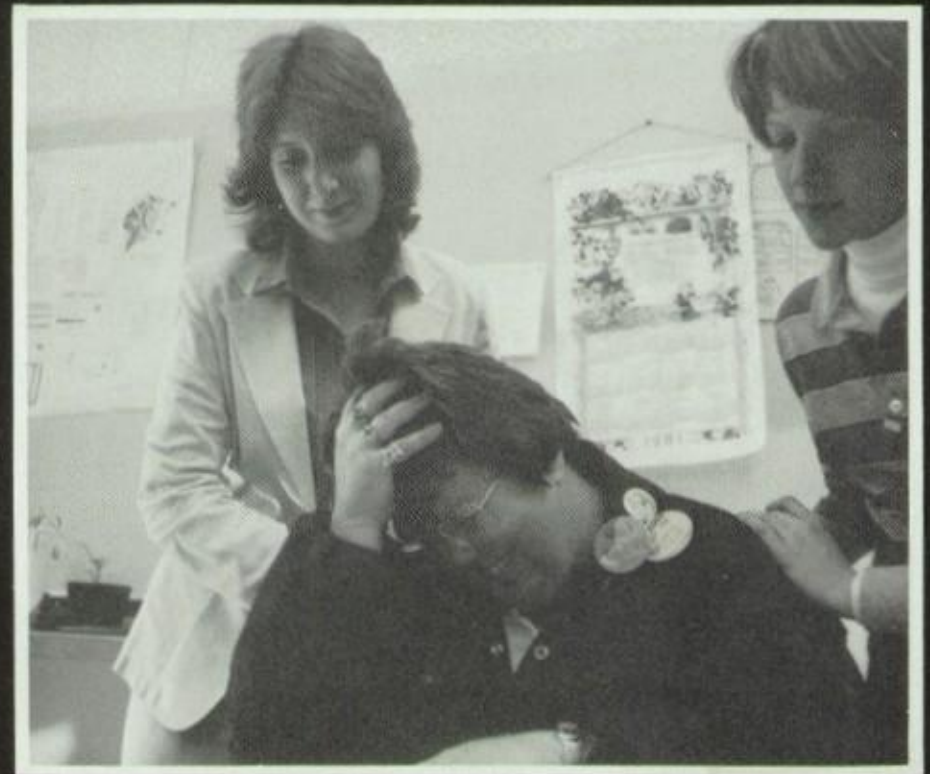

Friday, the 21st. I got the call at 10:09.

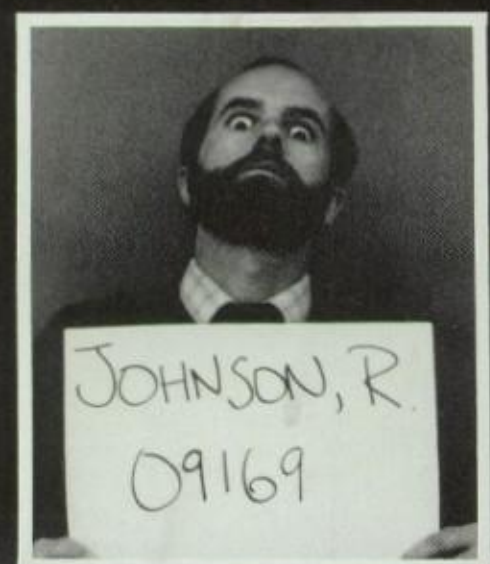

Someone had shot J.B.

There was one witness-A Dame.

She was shook, but identified some ex-cons.

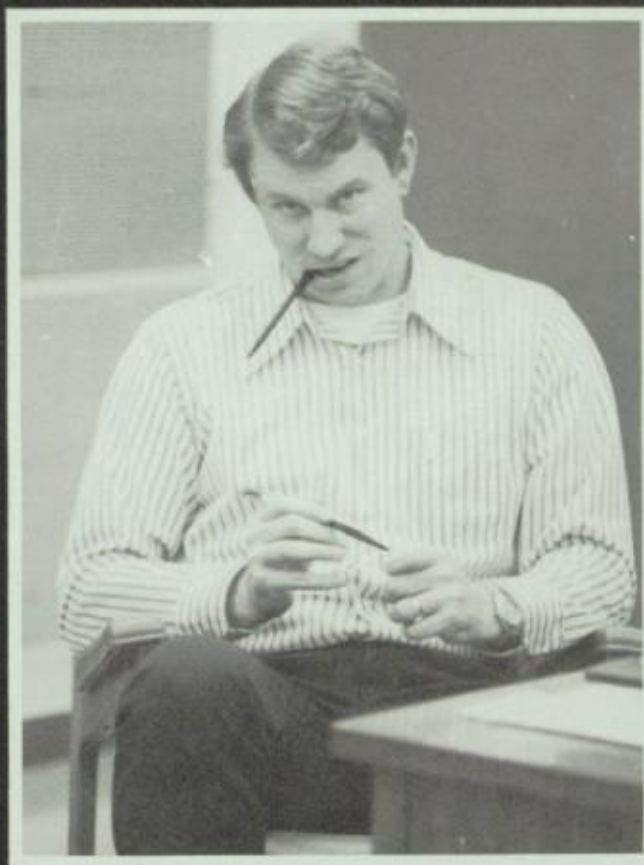

A Dame was waiting when I got back.

All her tip led to
was a knife in my back,

the cold-shoulder at
an opium den,

and the evil eye from
a corrupt boss.

As I walked I asked myself, "who really shot J.B.?"

And I came up with,
"who cares?"

CAMPUS LIFE

The pressures on high school students today are greater than ever. Frequently lonely, frequently adrift, they need help. Where can they go? Who can they talk to? One answer is Campus Life. This organization offers students a place to go when they need to talk about everyday problems. It is also a place where students can be taught about hope and meaning in a world which increasingly rejects both. Students need direction. So the Campus Life leader- well trained, concerned, and aware- provides these students with direction. The leader relates what the Bible says about how Christ transforms lives how He is the focal point for dealing with issues in a truly Christian way.

Campus Life is an informal evening meeting where enough people gather in a home to fill the living room. The evening starts out with skits, games, and singing. Then the meeting moves into an open discussion on something students want to talk about- loneliness, pressure, drugs, or the future. Campus Life also provides many other activities. For example, there is the annual Burger Bash that starts off the new school year. This an excellent opportunity to find out more about Campus Life, and the many things it offers. Campus Life also sponsors Powderpuff Football, the Mushball Tourney, Ski-n-Shoot, and bike trips. So for a great place to get away from home and school, or just a place to have fun and begin building new friendships come to Campus Life.

1. This is the kind of excitement that you can get on a "Shooting spree."
2. Many people take part in the annual Campus Life Ski-n-Shoot.
3. "Huh Who me?" questions Laurie Stechman.
4. Gary McCusker made it a point to go to football games, basketball games, and many other activities that students were involved in.
5. "Ahh! Come on Mom. I already washed my face once today!" cries Malcolm Keif.
6. Geronimoooooooo! A bunch of Campus Lifers jump off a bridge during the Ski-n-Shoot trip.
7. "Simon says..."
8. Building friendships is what Campus Life is all about.
9. "Look Mom. No hands." says Chaylon Holland while Malcolm Keif digs in.

THE YEARBOOK SAGA

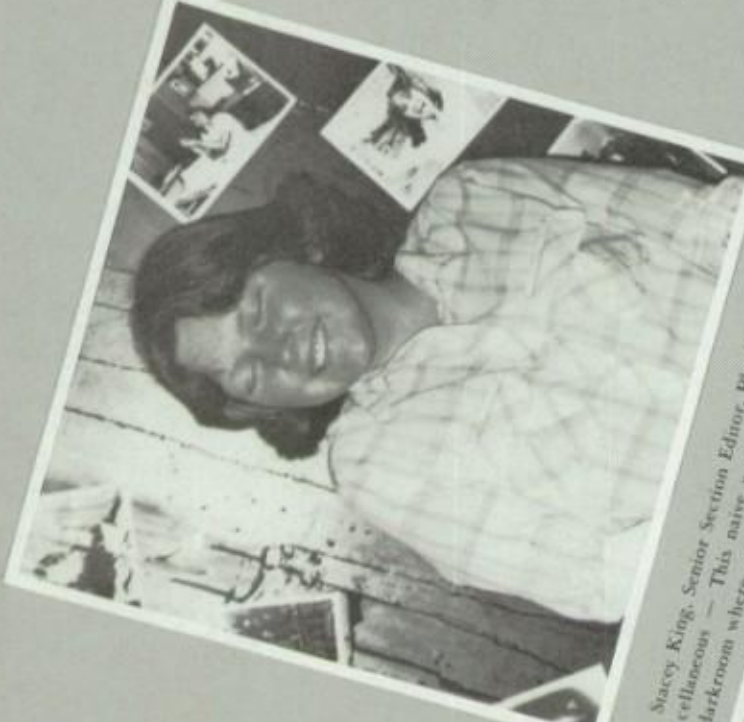

Judy Carnell, Advisor — The months of treatment at Raleigh Hills were all for naught after the first deadline.

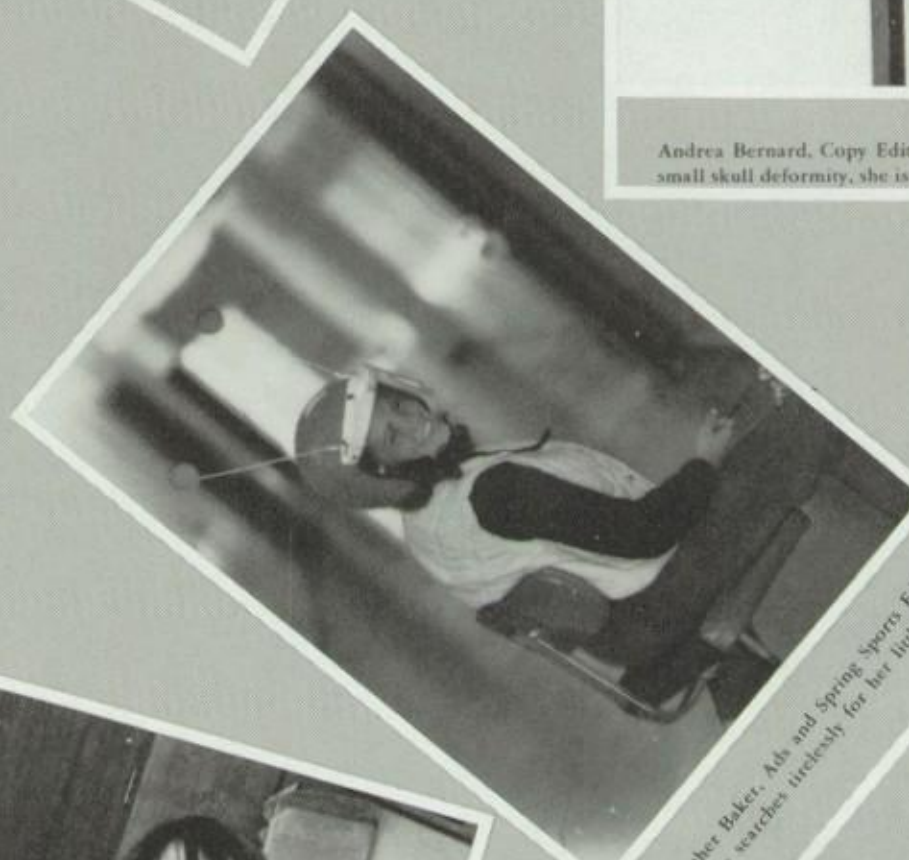

Margaret Apodaca, Editor-in-Chief — She strived to be a successful Yearbook Editor.

Andrea Bernard, Copy Editor — Because of a small skull deformity, she is spurned by society.

Stacey King, Senior Section Editor, Photographer, Miss Cellanous — This naive young girl ventures into the darkroom where many hearts have been shattered.

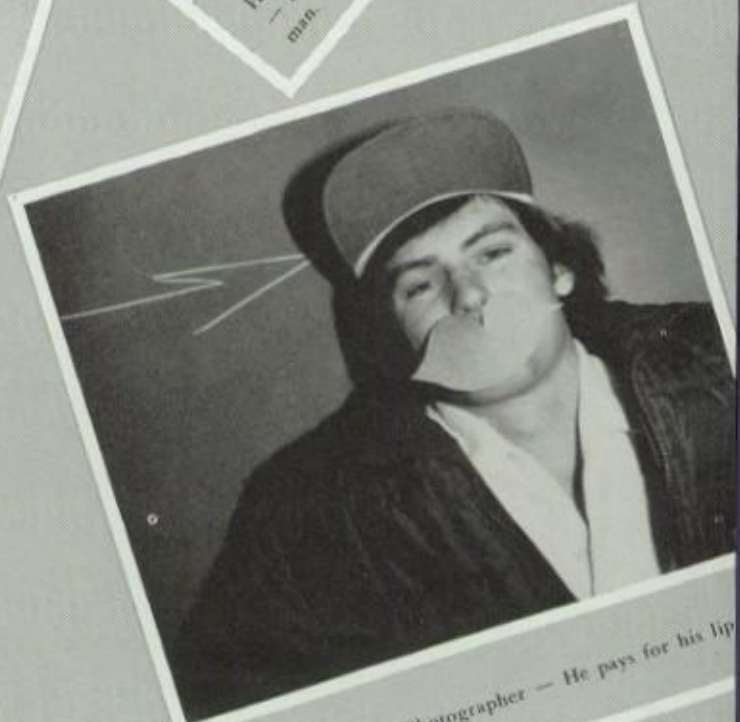

Heather Baker, Ads and Spring Sports Editor — She searches tirelessly for her little green man.

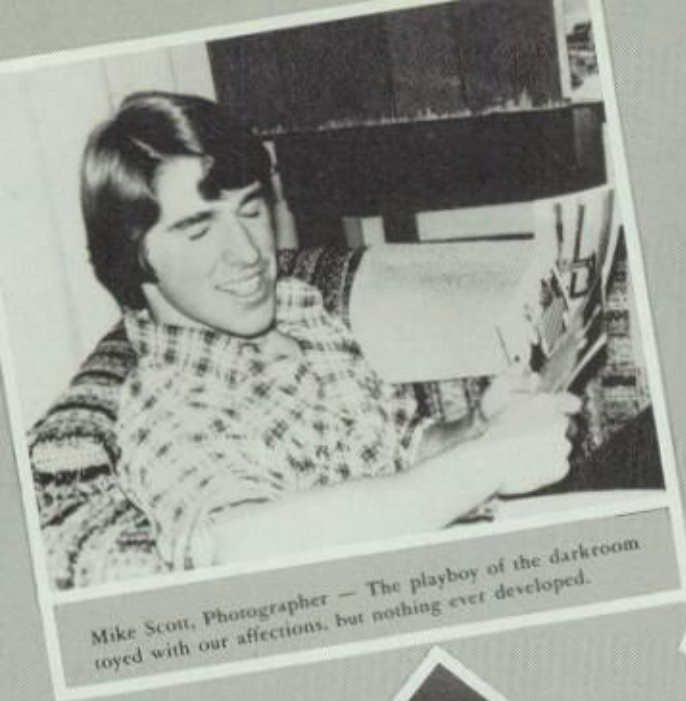

Lisa Sneed, Activities Editor — She may be smiling now; little does she know she has terminal lymph node cancer.

Dean Cully, Photographer — I am in total darkness.

Mike Kellerman, Photographer — He pays for his lip fetish.

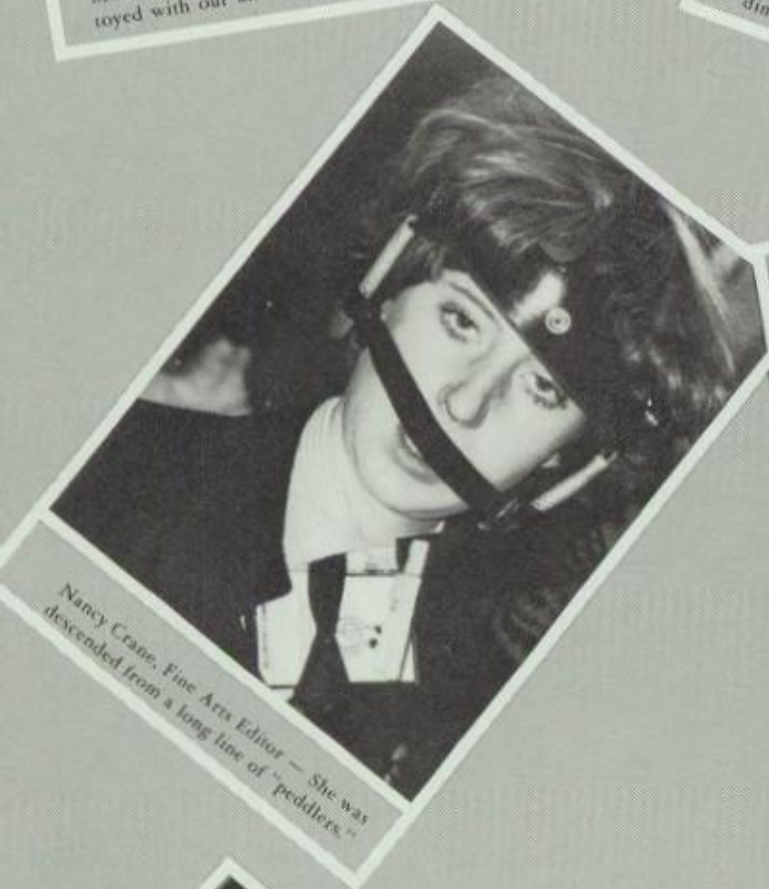

Mike Scott, Photographer — The playboy of the darkroom toyed with our affections, but nothing ever developed.

Emily Roske, Junior Section Editor and Miscellaneous — People mistook her for a Rasco. Could she be a disinherited dime store heiress?

Missy Adelman, Faculty Editor — On her way to court, she shows no shame for the sins she must pay for.

Nancy Crane, Fine Arts Editor — She was descended from a long line of "peddlers."

Nina Campbell, Assistant Senior Section Editor — She makes up photo orders just to get to the darkroom.

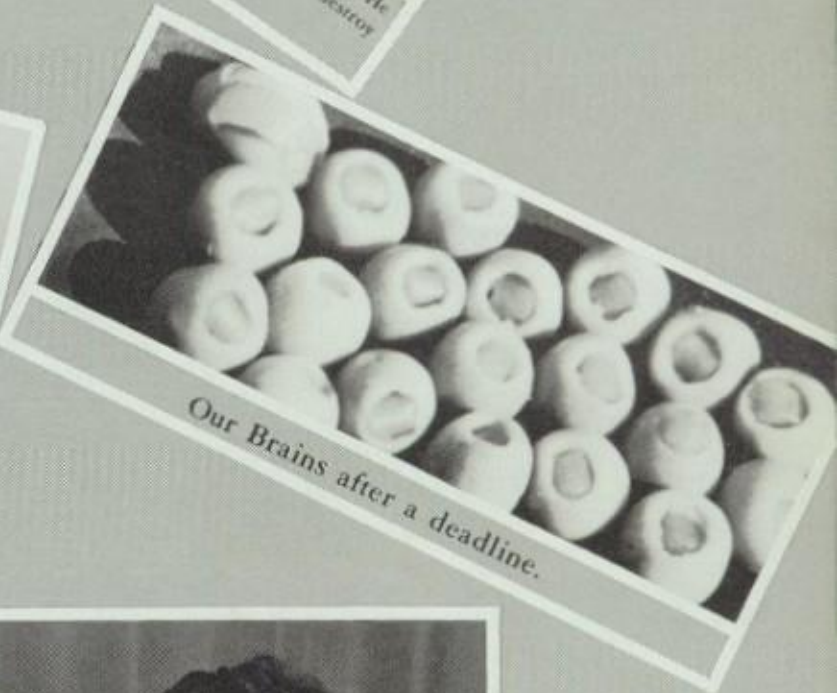

Marco Rizzo, Photographer — He holds the secret that could destroy Mike Scott.

Chris Couper, Fall Sports Editor and Writer — He fooled everyone, until his notebook betrayed the nightmare of his childhood.

Julia Scuri, Miscellaneous — Her sordid past forces her to insult photographers.

Our Brains after a deadline.

And how can we forget Natalie Auyong, that mysterious Advertising Manager — Thanks.

Monica Pisenti joined us in March from Templeton. She helped a lot. Thanks, Monica.

Marie Cheek, Miscellaneous — The volcanic redhead from Washington erupted with a zeal as yet unknown to the downtrodden yearbook staff.

This year, fourteen seniors were selected to attend A Presidential Classroom for Young Americans in Washington D.C. As delegates, the students were among the first to see a new administration take office.

The week-long stay in the nation's capitol included seminars and briefings from top government officials from the executive, legislative, and judicial branches. They also had the opportunity to visit the C.I.A. Headquarters. Presidential Classroom is the only civilian group allowed in the headquarters today.

Prior to their trips to Washington, Presidential Classroom students may have been seen selling those famous See Canyon apples, teriyaki meat, and even washing airplanes to help defer travel expenses. Along with donations from the county and non-profit organizations the cost was deferred a great deal.

After returning from their snowy weeks in Washington, Presidential Classroom students returned to sunny California, books and school. Surely none will forget this special experience.

VARIETY

When you hear that familiar drone high above you this summer and see a Cessna 150 crossing the sky, take the time to wave. Who knows, it may be Thelma Kling, an experienced 150 pilot, having flown to Mississippi, Tennessee, and Arkansas.

Mrs. Kling, who has taught at San Luis High for 18 years, leads an active and diverse life. Majoring in English and Social Studies, she graduated from the University of Southern California and had considered becoming a lawyer, but settled on teaching. During her early years of teaching, she also wrote for TV and radio shows. Mr. Kling is interested in music and art, and this seems to have influenced her son, a professional artist who goes by the name of Hugh Slayton and lives in Las Vegas.

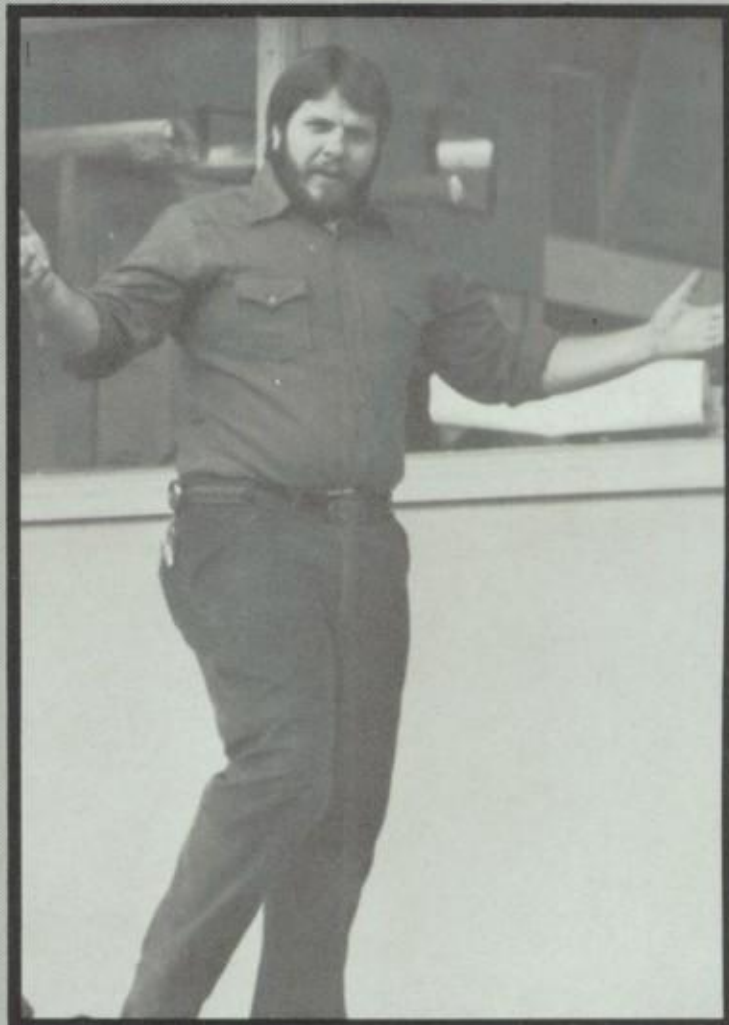

Of her job, she says, "I think teaching high school is one of the best jobs, because we (teachers) have the most influence on the students."

THE HELP YOU
BE GOOD (JOKE)

DIVERSITY

In Detroit, General Motors may be in for some hard times, but when James Doe worked there, it was doing well enough to give him a steady job during the summer, when he wasn't teaching at a college prep school there.

"I like to do a little bit of everything," he says. In high school, Doe was an academic student, but he enjoyed swimming on his own, playing tennis, taking part in drama and being active in speech and debate. Graduating from high school, he went onto Bates College in Maine, and majored in Philosophy and Religion. He received his masters at the University of New Hampshire. Mr. Doe comes from several generations of school administrators and faculty. His father was superintendent of schools, all his sisters and brothers either have been or are now teachers.

Married for 38 years, Mr. Doe's interests are still diverse. He is interested in archeology, anthropology, the humanities and history. He sings in church choir plays the cello and has directed choral groups. Says James Doe, "I enjoy people more than things."

UPBEAT

How would Monte Mills go over with the music lovers of the Soviet Union, Japan or Korea? Does a drummer have a reprieve with the people of South America or Europe? Robert Huttie may not have played for them all on a tour with Mills and his Lucky Horseshoe Band, but he has come to appreciate his travels for he says they are an "ultimate learning experience." Learning was a life goal, and Huttie has passed on the ability to his students. The well-liked English teacher was inspired by his high school teachers to become one himself. It is at the high school teaching level that he is more comfortable. Huttie says it is more personal and "it works for him" It works for us as well.

Music

"Teaching art is a way of making a living and at the same time doing something I enjoy." Thus Pat Cairns, a new teacher at San Luis High, describes her feelings for her job. Mrs. Cairns, who lives in Atascadero with her husband and three children, grew up in Ojai, Ca. She started college in Stanford and finished at the School of Art at the University of Denver.

Mrs. Cairns husband teaches at Cal Poly and she, while substituting there, found older students to be more inhibited than younger students. As she says, "I've met some very talented students through teaching."

Mrs. Cairns is herself an accomplished artist, and would like to be a full-time painter. Indeed, she enjoys painting and has exhibited her works in the area.

San Luis High campus supervisors Marlie Schmidt and Steve McGrath treat what they do as more than a part-time job and a plus for their Cal Poly teaching credentials and Farm Management studies. Schmidt believes San Luis "is such a clean school" and enjoyable to work at. Both she and McGrath feel their jobs help them to know the community outside of college.

A black and white photograph showing a pair of Birkenstock sandals. One sandal is positioned to show its side profile with two straps and buckles, while the other is positioned to show its footbed, which has the 'BIRKENSTOCK' logo and 'MADE IN GERMANY' printed on it. They are resting on a rough, rocky surface.

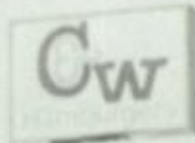

Madonna Inn
 San Luis Obispo

A black and white photograph of the Madonna Inn. The building is a large, multi-story structure with a prominent central tower featuring a cross on top. The architecture is a mix of Spanish Colonial and Gothic Revival styles. In the foreground, several vintage cars from the 1970s are parked on a street. A large, leafy tree stands to the left of the entrance.

A black and white photograph of a mountain landscape. The foreground is dominated by the dark, silhouetted branches of a pine tree on the left and right sides. In the background, a range of mountains is visible under a clear sky. The mountains have a rugged, rocky appearance with some snow or light-colored rock patches.

To one of my favorite fudge sicles
You're a real super
fudge of a guy.
I must say I think your truck's pretty nice even though it's yours. I hope you become the
awesome mechanic
you want to be.
Gosh one thing
that's really got me bummed out

ed is that you have become such a "socializer".
It's really got me depressed.
But glad you're my friend
I hope I get to see you
in the future.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We hope this Yearbook will help you to remember the times of 1980-81. Here are a few of those who helped us put this book together.

Our Representative from Josten's/American Yearbook Co., Steve Sanders. And Marilyn Harris, the official at the plant itself in Visalia, Ca.

Mr. John Barnhart, Dean of Activities, who told us the do's and don't's.

Mrs. Corinne Phaklides, ASB Secretary, who managed our finances.

San Luis High Faculty and Coaches, who complied with our questioning and cooperated to the fullest.

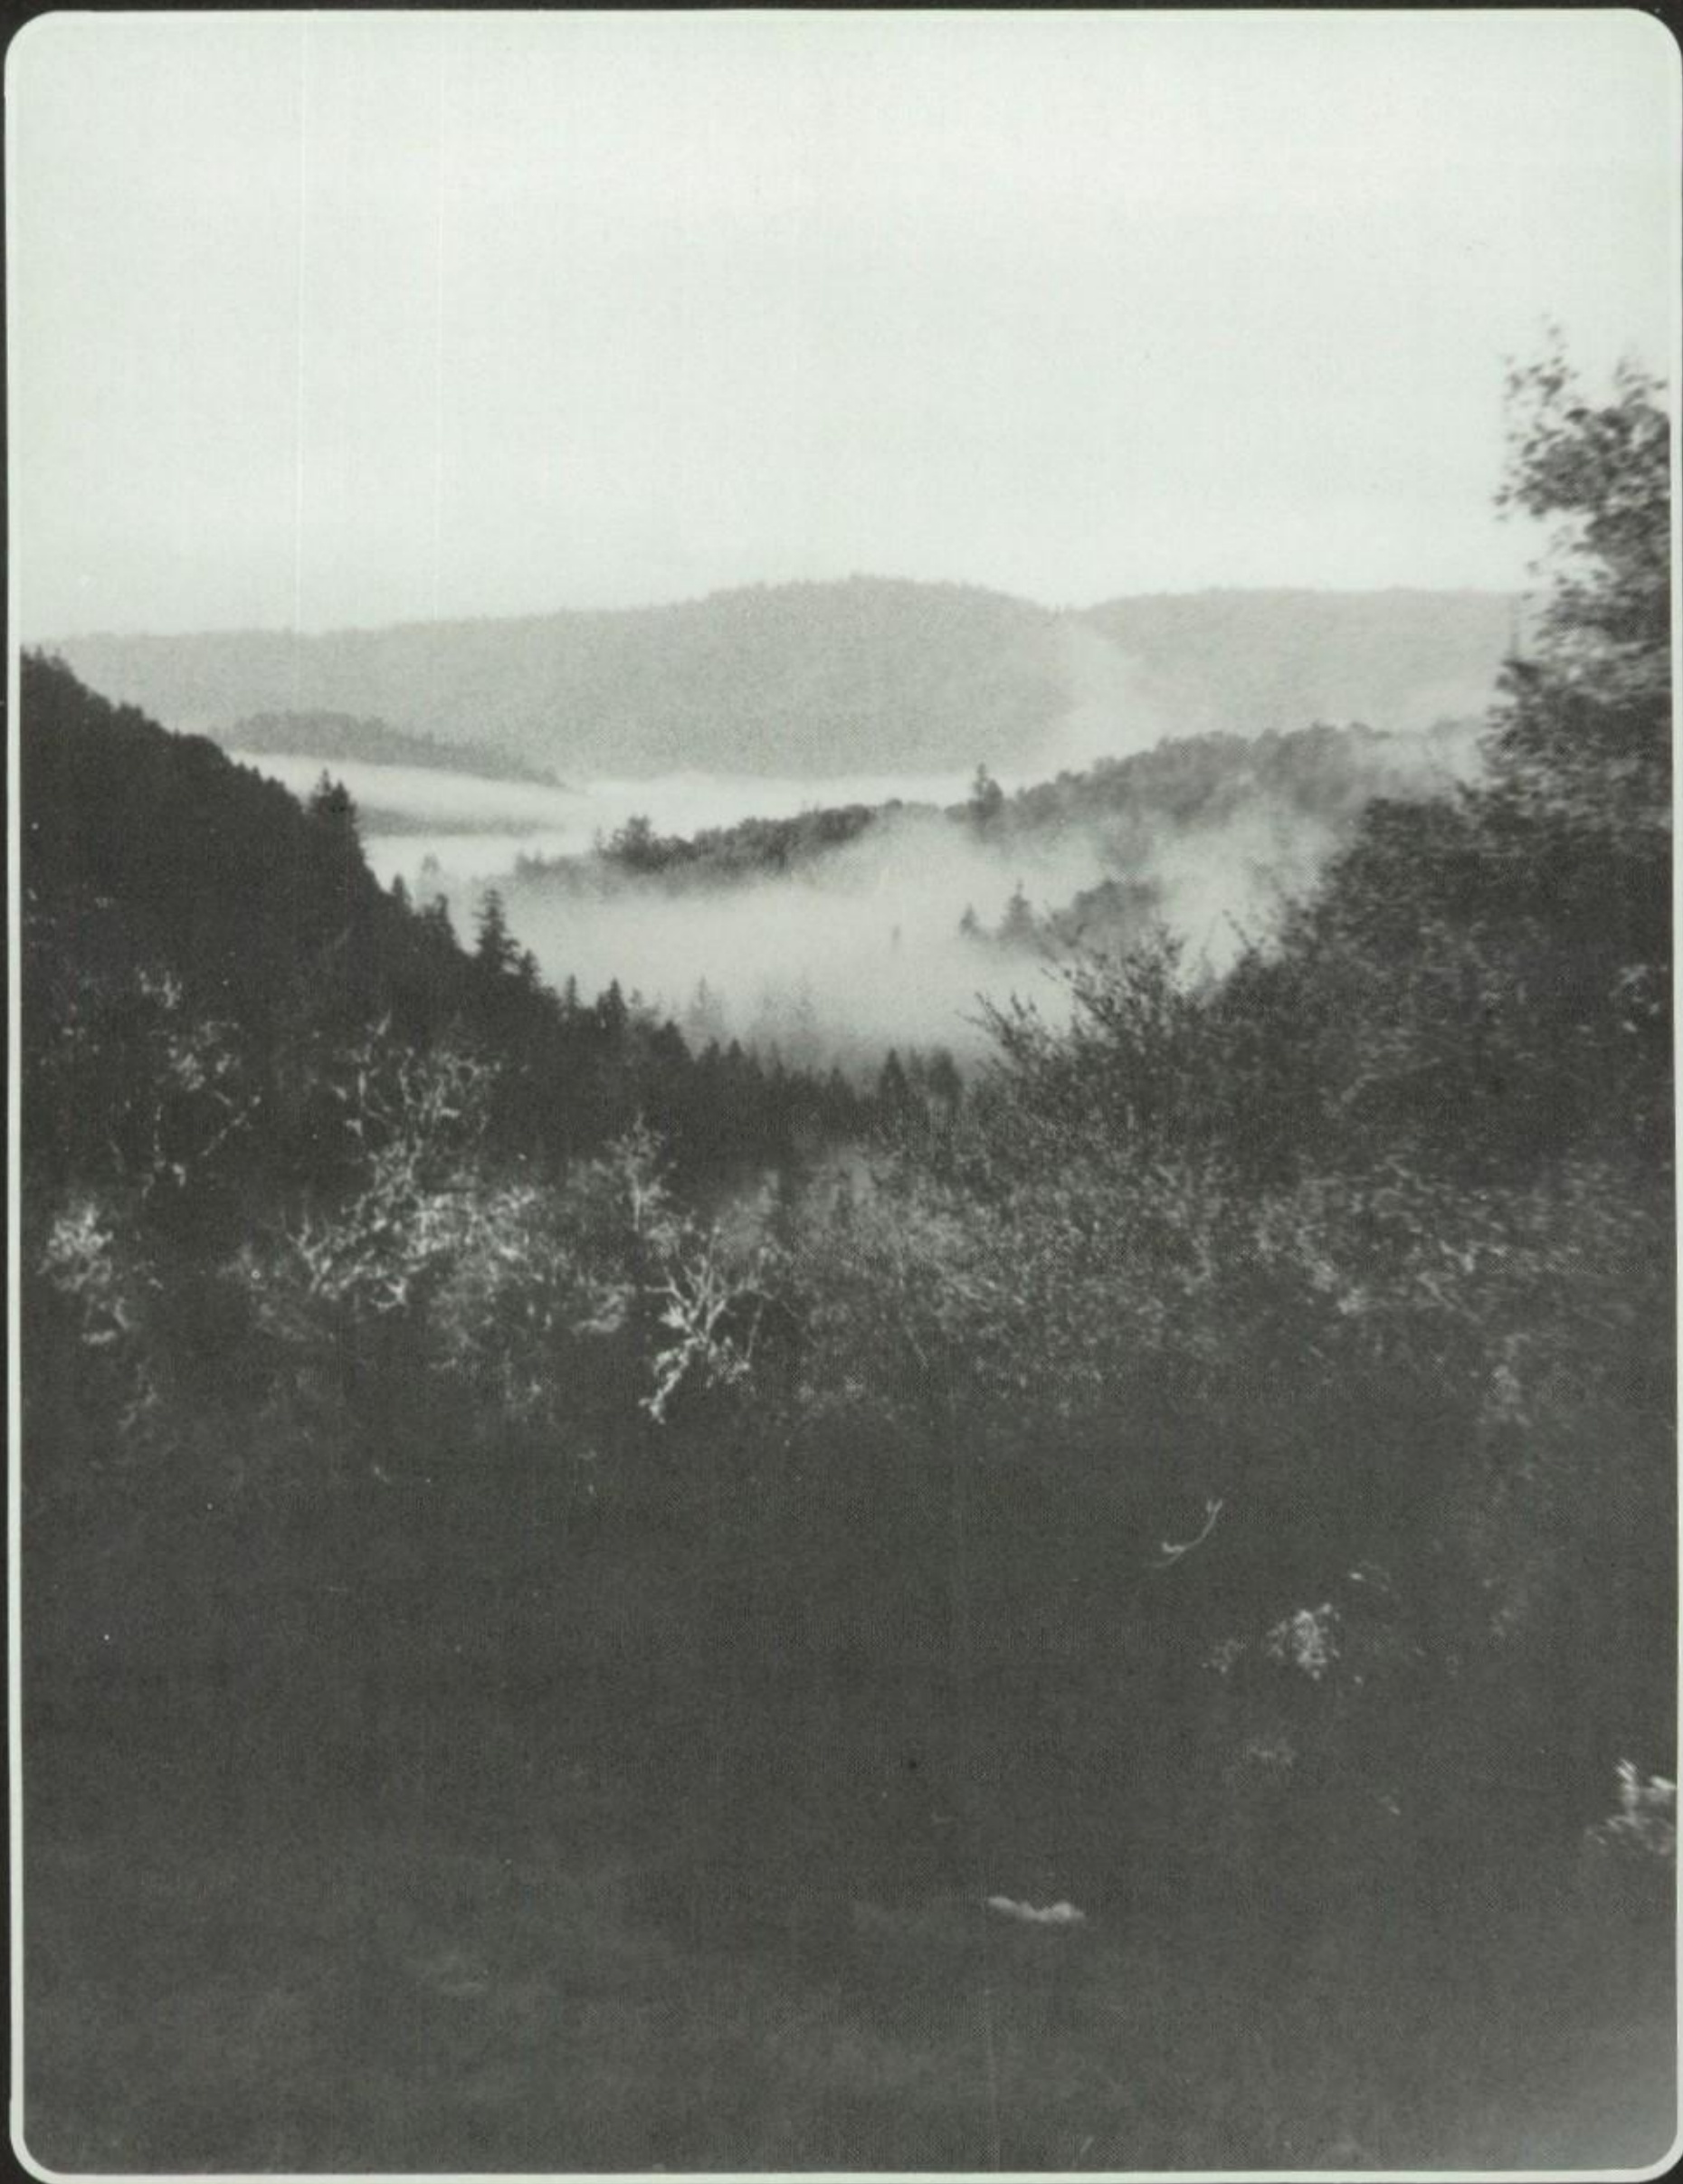

San Luis High Custodial Service, who opened many doors for us—especially those of the Yearbook and Darkrooms.

Our generous Advertisers.

Jim's Campus Camera and Cal West of San Luis Obispo, who supplied the paper and chemicals for Darkroom production.

Members of the Telegram-Tribune Staff who provided journalistic pointers—John Marrs, Wayne Nicholls, and Tim Ryan.

And lastly, Yearbook families, who were as much a part of this as we were.

Edg know you
mom will probab
read this book so
wont say anything
parting in perfermo
with 17 kegs of BEER
34 people or I wont thing slicks on your SAY
some them to down BLEACH
ed promise not to say ANY parents would probably get we keep and I touch after lots of good YOUR we stay Friend
Jimburnoff
Jim
Jim
or whatever

Edward, Edward, Edward,

even though i am sarcastic to you its all in good fun take care of yourself & the best of luck in life see ya around

Love ya
Stephame Flores.

ED LABEARNER,
you're the ONLY MEXICAN i've seen that doesn't hang out in Borrito corner at school and wear those stupid clothes and carry knives and ghetto blasters with you. ITS BEEN A BITCHEN
YEAR - sort of anyway. I'm glad
I met you and maybe next time
I go down to guadalupe or Santa Maria I'll see you class 81
sucks
LATER ON
'DION

well we finally made it. I'm really glad we had some classes together so I could get to know you. you kept the year exciting with all your jokes
& burn outs in the parking lots. well
Ed take care of yourself & good luck next year at westhills. keep in touch.

Love
Kathy 2

Ed, Ed, Ed, (sound familiar)

well, as much as it hurts me to say it, you're a real sweetie! Even if you do cheat at poker. I am glad I got to meet and get to know you this last semester. Thank you for letting me drive seaweed, and as soon as I see you again, you will see how good I can drive. You take care of yourself this summer, and best of luck to you at school.

You are really a great guy!!!

Love u ya
Lisa!!!

P.S. You do cheat at poker!!

~~Breast~~ Bedspread Boy!!!

Ed - Thanks your real is weekhart
 your pig is ugly and I will do better then you so I can feel to be married the day I already a kid on I can't stand Mexicans who drive to know I think that smelt like a refried beans burritos all the way. See you around June you can get out of your grandboard house our your little green truck. have fun being married
 let me know if you need a babysitter

guadalupe is best

Love
 Chrissy
 Ryan
 (Avila)

EDWARD

LABONER

WERE'S MY SIX PACK OF COORS YOU ARE
ME DON'T THINK YOUR COINS TO GET OUT OF THAT CAUSE I'LL FIND YA SOONER OR LATER. YOU DUMB BEAVER, I WILL GO DOWN TO GUADALUPE TO FIND YOUR ASS, MAN! I WILL KNIFE
YOU TO DEATH BUT, ONLY AS LONG AS ALL YOUR ~~BEAVER~~ BEAVER FRIENDS ARE AROUND THEN THEY WILL KNIFE ME ~~TO~~.

Aosta Caerista

A large, stylized handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Edward Laboner'.

Edo,
Well I'm not as original as you but oh well. I hope you have a great time at West Hills, who knows
you may see me there welding! You are a really supper guy don't ever change!

Love
Denise

Hey EDD!
Well made it thru school. Bitchen, thank for the tips in ag. Hope to see ya around, make at a party or something!
Take Care
Tui Weepert

Ed Limon, (SR.)

we'll HAVE TO GO
PARTY UP AT PERFUMO
CANYON like LAST TIME.
we're FINALLY OUT OF SCHOOL. Don't melt your TIRES OFF THE TRUCK!

Steve Hamer 8/1

Edward J. Hamer
see you in deer stand
and all get my limit
this year. and all
tell you when my next party is
David Hamer

Ed. You know,
Bikes rule. I'm glad Green kids. You glad this year
Sist to meet you together, have got had fun
were a Bitcher summer.

ah.

The image displays a repeating pattern of a form, likely a template for a book or a collection of cards. Each form unit contains the following text and checkboxes:

- Top Section:
 - It was great sharing all the ☐ fun ☐ monotony of school with you
 - It will be ☐ nice ☐ disappointing to have some classes with you next year
 - I hope you ☐ have fun ☐ don't bother me this summer
 - Be sure to ☐ break an arm ☐ come over ☐ call ☐ go fly a kite ☐ drop dead
- Middle Section:
 - Well, wasn't it a ☐ tremendous ☐ long ☐ sickening year?
 - To a ☐ swell ☐ nice ☐ boring ☐ stupid kid
 - It was great sharing all the ☐ fun ☐ monotony of school with you
 - It will be ☐ nice ☐ disappointing to have some classes with you next year
 - I hope you ☐ have fun ☐ don't bother me this summer
 - Be sure to ☐ break an arm ☐ come over ☐ call ☐ go fly a kite ☐ drop dead
- Bottom Section:
 - Signature _____
 - P.S. _____
 - Till then, ☐ Luv Ya, ☐ Best Wishes, ☐ Get Lost ☐ Who Cares?

The forms are arranged in a grid-like pattern, overlapping slightly, creating a dense, repetitive visual effect. The text is in a simple, sans-serif font, and the checkboxes are small squares.
